CHAPTER 269—H. F. No. 842.

An Act fixing and regulating the salaries and compensation of the judge of probate and authorizing county boards to appropriate money for the payment of clerk hire in probate courts in counties having or which may hereafter have a population of more than 100,000 and less than 200,000 inhabitants.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Regulating salaries of judge of probate in counties of 100,000 and less than 200,000 inhabitants.—Section 1. In all counties having a population of more than 100,000 and less than 200,000 inhabitants the judge of probate thereof shall receive in full compensation for all services rendered by him, an annual salary of thirty-six hundred ($3,600.00) dollars, paid in equal monthly installments.

$4,200 clerk hire authorized.—Sec. 2. The board of county commissioners of such county is hereby authorized to appropriate out of the general funds of such county for paying clerk and clerical hire in the office of such probate court, such sum as they shall deem expedient, not exceeding the sum of forty-two hundred ($4,200.00) dollars.

Fees shall be paid into the county treasury.—Sec. 3. The judge of probate and clerk of probate court shall charge the same fees for his services as are now or may hereafter be allowed by law and all such fees so charged and collected in said office, except fees for taking acknowledgments, administering oaths and performing marriage ceremonies outside of their probate duties, shall be paid into the county treasury.

Inconsistent acts repealed.—Sec. 4. All acts and parts of acts, whether the same be general, special or provide that the same shall not be repealed without express mention, inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 20, 1909.
