CHAPTER 307—H. F. No. 208.

An Act authorizing the board of county commissioners of any county to direct the county treasurer to advertise in one or more newspapers the time real and personal property taxes will become delinquent.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

County commissioners may direct county treasurer to advertise time for payment of real and personal property taxes.—Section 1. That the board of county commissioners of any county in the state may, by resolution, direct the county treasurer to publish in one or more newspapers published in said county, a notice in the form of a display advertisement, informing taxpayers of the approaching time when real and personal taxes will become delinquent and when penalties will accordingly attach, which resolution shall also fix the maximum amount that shall be paid for such advertisements; provided, however, that not more than the sum of one hundred (100.00) dollars shall be paid in any one year for such advertisements in any such county.

Duty of county treasurer.—Sec. 2. Upon the passage of any such resolution it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to prepare and have published such notice as may be appropriate and have the same published using such space in such newspapers as will comply with the terms of such resolutions, and the expense thereof shall be allowed by the board of county commissioners and paid out of the county treasury as other claims against the county.
