CHAPTER 203—S. F. No. 137.

An Act to amend Chapter 361 of the General Laws of 1909, entitled "An Act to fix and provide for the salaries of the sheriffs of counties now, or hereafter having, not less than 200,000 nor more than 275,000 inhabitants, to fix and provide for the number of deputies and other employees of any such sheriff, their salaries, the duties to be performed by them, their appointment and removal, and the payment of the expenses incurred by him or them."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Salary of stenographer $900; six deputies, three to be known as outside deputies.—Section 2, Chapter 361 of the General Laws of Minnesota for the year 1909, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. Such sheriff shall appoint and employ the following deputies, assistants and employees: one chief deputy, who shall be paid a salary of two thousand dollars per annum; one book-keeper, who shall be a deputy sheriff, who shall be paid a salary of one thousand, five hundred dollars per annum; one assistant book-keeper, who shall be a deputy sheriff, who shall be paid a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum; one stenographer, who shall be paid a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum; six deputy sheriffs, who shall be known as out-side deputies, each of whom shall be required to pay his own traveling expenses within such county; two of said deputies shall be paid, each, a salary of one thousand, five hundred dollars per annum; one of said deputies shall be paid a salary of one thousand, three hundred dollars per annum, and it shall be the duty of such deputy in addition to such other duties, as may be assigned to him, to care for all insane persons in the custody of the sheriff, and to attend upon the sessions of the probate court in and for said county; three of said deputies, shall be paid, each, a salary of one thousand, two hundred dollars."

Sec. 2. Municipal court deputy, in addition to others.—Section 3, Chapter 361 of the General Laws of Minnesota for the year 1909, is hereby amended, so as to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. He shall also appoint at least as many additional deputies, to be known as court room deputies, as there may be judges of the district court in and for any such county, whose duties it shall be, in addition to such other duties as may be required of them as such deputies, to attend to the sessions of the said district court, also one additional deputy to be known as a municipal court deputy, whose duty it shall be in addition to such other duties as may be required of him as such deputy, to attend to the sessions of the said municipal court, and also one other deputy, who shall, in addition to such other duties as may be required of him as such deputy, have charge of the juries at criminal trials conducted in said district court, and the salary of each of the aforesaid deputies is hereby fixed at one thousand dollars per annum."

Sec. 3. Assistant matron at $600 per annum.—Section 4, Chapter 361 of the General Laws of Minnesota for the year 1909, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Sec. 4. In any such county in which any such sheriff may be in charge of a county jail, he shall also appoint a matron thereof, whose salary is hereby fixed at seven hundred and twenty dollars per annum; an assistant matron, whose salary is hereby fixed at six hundred dollars per annum; a chief jailer, whose salary is hereby fixed at one thousand, two hundred dollars per annum, and six assistant jailers, the salary of each of whom is hereby fixed at nine hundred dollars per annum, and the said chief jailer and each of his said assistants shall also be deputies."

Sec. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
