

CHAPTER 269—H. F. No. 809.

An Act to provide for the retirement of judges of the supreme court or district court, disabled from performing their duties by physical or mental infirmities.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Retirement of district or supreme court judges—Procedure.—Whenever a judge of the supreme court or district court in this state shall become incapacitated physically or mentally from performing his judicial duties during the remainder of his term of office and shall make a written application to the governor for his retirement, setting forth the nature and extent of such disability, the governor shall make such investigation as he shall deem advisable and if he shall thereby determine that such disability exists, and that the public service is suffering and will continue to suffer by reason of such disability, he shall thereupon by written order, to be filed in the office of the secretary of state, direct the retirement of such judge for the unexpired portion of the term for which such judge was elected, which retirement shall create a vacancy in said office, which shall be filled by appointment, as provided by law.

Provided, that when the disability is mental and to an extent that renders such judge incompetent to make such application, the same may be made by the legally appointed guardian of such judge.

Sec. 2. Compensation during remainder of term.—When a judge shall be retired under the provisions of Section One of this act, he shall receive the compensation allotted to his office by law for the remainder of his said term, to be paid at the time and in the manner provided by law.

Approved April 12, 1913.

CHAPTER 270—H. F. No. 1014.

An Act entitled "An Act to amend Revised Laws of 1905, Section 1415, as amended by General Laws of Minnesota 1907, Chapter 308, relating to the levy of additional taxes for school purposes in school districts having fifty thousand inhabitants or more."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Permission to increase tax levy for school purposes.—Revised Laws of Minnesota, 1905, Section 1415, as amended by General Laws of Minnesota 1907, Chapter 308, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 1415. In all districts having fifty thousand (50,000) inhabitants or more there may be levied, independently of
