

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 1.

Mr. Seebach offers the following joint resolution:

WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst a former governor of Minnesota, Gen. Lucius F. Hubbard, who departed this life at the home of his son in Minneapolis, on the evening of Wednesday, Feb. 5th, 1913; and

WHEREAS, the people of Minnesota, through its senators and representatives in legislature assembled, recognize in the death of Gen. Hubbard, the passing away of a distinguished soldier, whose services on behalf of the union during the terrible crucial period of American history, and more especially in the leadership of members of the fifth Minnesota regiment at the battle of Corinth, will ever remain glorious to historians; whose career as a public official, made brighter by four years of progressive work as governor; and later, once again as a private citizen, believing in and upholding the dignity of the laws of a great state;

Therefore, as a mark of esteem for the services rendered to his country, and to his state,

Be it Resolved, By the senate and house of representatives, that a committee of seven senators and ten representatives be appointed by the presiding officers of either branch of the legislature for the purpose of representing the state of Minnesota, at the funeral services over the remains of the departed, and we further recommend that on the afternoon of the day of the funeral all public business be suspended.

Which was unanimously adopted in both branches of the legislature.

Approved February 10, 1913.

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 2.

For the appointment of a committee of the legislature of Minnesota to confer with a committee of the legislature of Wisconsin relative to uniform and reciprocal laws relating to the taking of fish in all boundary waters between Minnesota and Wisconsin, including Lake Pepin and Lake St. Croix.

WHEREAS, serious controversy has arisen between the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin concerning the fishing rights of their respective citizens in the Mississippi river and Lake Pepin, constituting the boundary line between said states, and,

WHEREAS, because of such differences, an action has been commenced by the state of Minnesota against the state of Wisconsin in the supreme court of the United States, which action is now pending, for the purpose of determining the true boundary line, and,
