

The county auditor shall extend the tax so levied by the county board in sufficient amounts from year to year to cover principal and interest as they mature.

The credit of the county shall be pledged to the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds. Said bonds shall be signed by the chairman of the board of county commissioners and attested by the auditor of such county and sealed with his official seal and shall have proper interest coupons attached.

The auditor shall keep a record of all bonds issued under the provisions of this act which record shall show the date, number and amount of each bond, rate of interest, time when due and the name of the person to whom issued.

Sec. 3. Proceeds of sale to be credited to sanatorium fund.—The proceeds of the sale of such bonds shall be placed with the county treasurer of such county to the credit of the sanatorium fund and shall be used in accordance with and for the purpose described in this act and for no other purpose whatsoever.

Sec. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 26, 1917.

CHAPTER 112—S. F. No. 452.

An act granting additional powers to school boards and authorizing them to take charge of, disburse money for and control all school and quasi school activities of teachers and children in the public schools in their respective districts and providing for the receipt and disbursement of certain donations to the district.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Extension of powers of school boards as to activities of teachers and pupils.—In addition to the powers now or hereafter conferred by law upon the school board of any school district in this state, such school board may and upon vote of the district shall take charge of and control all school and quasi school activities of the teachers and children of the public schools in that district held in the school buildings or school grounds or under the supervision or direction of the school board and to that end adopt rules and regulations for the conduct of athletic, oratorical, musical, dramatic and other contests and entertainments in which the schools of such district or any class or pupils therein may participate. All moneys received on account of such entertainments and contests shall be turned over to the school district treasurer who shall keep the same in a separate fund to be known as the "school auxiliary fund," to be disbursed for expenses connected with such entertainments or contests, or otherwise by the school board upon properly allowed itemized claims. Any donations to the school district for specific objects and purposes and other than for the primary purposes of the district, shall be placed in the fund hereinbefore referred to and in like manner disbursed; the request of the donor or donors thereof being complied with in regard to the purpose of such disbursements, if the school board shall consider that the interest of the district will be promoted thereby.

Sec. 2. Consent of school board to be secured for all entertainments and contests.—No such school or quasi school entertainment or contest in any district in which the school board shall act under the provisions of this chapter shall be participated in by the teachers or pupils in the public schools of such district, nor shall the school name or any allied name be used in connection therewith, except by consent and direction of the school board.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 26, 1917.

CHAPTER 113—S. F. No. 456.

An act to empower the commissioner of labor to co-operate with the federal government or with municipalities for the establishment and maintenance of co-operative employment bureaus under the joint management of the Minnesota Department of Labor and Industries and the federal government or any municipality or both.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. State to co-operate with federal government and municipalities in conduct of labor bureaus.—The commissioner of labor is hereby authorized and empowered to co-operate with the federal government in the establishment, and maintenance within the state of Minnesota, of one or more employment bureaus for the purpose of bringing together the man and the job. Said commissioner is also authorized and empowered to co-operate in a similar way, and for the same purpose with a municipality or municipalities, or with the federal government and any municipalities.

Such co-operative employment bureaus, when established, shall be under the joint management of the co-operating parties, and the cost and expense of establishing and of carrying on any such bureau, shall be borne by the co-operating parties, upon an equitable basis to be agreed upon between them.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force upon and after its passage.

Approved March 26, 1917.
