

existing laws applicable to judicial districts which do not contain a city of the first class, and the judge of such district shall fix the salary of such reporter appointed therein at a sum not to exceed two thousand dollars, ($2,000.00) per annum and necessary railway, traveling and hotel expenses while absent from his place of residence in such district in the discharge of his official duties, by an order made and filed in the first instance with the respective county auditors of the district so affected within thirty (30) days after the approval of this act, and by subsequent orders made and filed with said county auditors annually on or before the first Monday in January, and all such orders shall apportion the salary of such reporter among the several counties of said district and require the payment thereof in the same manner as is provided by section 119 of the Revised Laws of the state of Minnesota for the year 1905, as amended by chapter 168, General Laws of 1909. The expenses of such reporter shall be paid by the county for which the same shall be incurred upon presentation of a verified statement of the reporter therefor duly approved by the presiding judge; whereupon the auditor shall issue his warrant in payment thereof.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 30, 1917.

---

CHAPTER 144—S. F. No. 730:

An act to reimburse the official reporter of the district court of the third judicial district for amounts paid out for railways, traveling and hotel expenses while absent from his place of residence in the discharge of his official duties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. 3rd judicial district court reporters allowed traveling expenses while absent from residence on official duty.—The official reporter of the district court of the third judicial district of the state shall be paid, in addition to the amounts now provided by law, all sums he shall hereafter pay out as necessary railway, traveling and hotel expenses while absent from his place of residence in the discharge of his official duties.

Such expenses shall be paid by the respective counties for which the same were incurred, upon presentation of a verified and itemized statement of the reporter therefor, duly approved by the judge of said court, to the county auditor, whereupon the auditor shall issue his warrant in payment thereof.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 30, 1917.