

Section 1. Proceeding of city council and vote of people on bond issue legalized.—That in all cases in which during the twelve months immediately preceding the adoption of this act, the city council of any city of the fourth class in this state operating under a charter adopted in accordance with Section 36 of Article 4 of the Constitution of Minnesota, has taken proceedings to hold an election in such city for the purpose of approving of or rejecting the question or proposition whether or not the city should issue its bonds for the purpose of paying the expenses of paving any of its streets and wherein at such election such proposition to issue such bonds was duly approved of by the requisite majority of the voters voting at such election, but wherein the notice of election calling such election and submitting such question to the voters thereof failed to clearly state whether or not such question would be submitted to the voters thereof for approval or rejection, and failed to state the purpose for which the money so voted would be used, such proceedings of said city council and such election, and the bonds of said city when issued in accordance with said proceedings and election, are hereby legalized and made valid and effectual for all purposes.

Sec. 2. Application.—This act shall not apply to or affect any action now pending involving the validity of any such resolution or proceedings of any such city council or the validity of any such election.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 1, 1917.
