

CHAPTER 121—S. F. No. 8.

An act authorizing the renewal of the period of corporate existence of certain corporations whose period of duration has expired without renewal thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1 Extension of period of existence of certain corporations authorized.—Any corporation heretofore organized for pecuniary profit, under the laws of this state, whose period of duration has expired less than four years prior to the passage of this act, and, though inadvertance or otherwise, the same has not been renewed, and such corporation has continued to transact its business, may renew its corporate existence from the date of the expiration of its period of duration for an additional period not exceeding the period of thirty (30) years from and after the time of its expired period of duration, with the same force and effect as if renewed prior to the expiration of its said term of existence, by taking the same proceedings and by paying into the state treasury the same incorporation fees, if any, as now provided by law for the renewal of the corporate existence of such corporation in cases where such renewal is made before the end of its period of duration.

Provided, that such proceedings to obtain such extension shall be taken within six (6) months after the passage of this act and provided further, that this act shall not apply to any corporation the charter of which has been declared forfeited by the final judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction in this state.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 29, 1921.

CHAPTER 122—S. F. No. 199.

An act to amend Section 4 of Chapter 112 of the Session Laws of Minnesota for 1919 entitled: "An act to amend Chapter 200 and Chapter 92 of the special laws of the year 1881 and acts confirmatory and amendatory thereof, by adding a provision for a department of the municipal court of the city of Stillwater to be known as the court of conciliation."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Court to have jurisdiction up to $50.—That Section 4 of Chapter 112 of the General Laws of the State of Minnesota for the year 1919 be and the same is amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 4. Procedure on hearing.—(a) In case the parties brought before the conciliation court in the manner provided in this act, do not agree upon the judgment to be entered, then in case the amount
