

to a stop, and, upon request or raising of the hand of the person in charge of said animal, or in case said animal continues to exhibit signs of fright, or in case the person riding, driving or leading said animal cannot control the same, the said operator shall stop the motor of such vehicle, so long as shall be reasonably necessary to prevent damage to property, or life or limb of such person or animal. An operator in rounding curves shall reduce speed and shall keep his vehicle as far to the right on the highway as reasonably possible. Any person shall, at the intersection of public highways, keep to the right of the intersection of the centers of such highways, when turning to the right, and pass to the right of such intersection when turning to the left. An operator intending to turn his vehicle to the left shall drive along the center of the roadway, extend his arm in a horizontal position and slow down. An indicator in the shape of an arrow or the semblance of a human forearm which shall extend when horizontal at least 18 inches from the outer side of the vehicle and which shall be so situated on the vehicle beside the operator as to be clearly visible from a following or approaching vehicle, may be used in lieu of the operator's arm. A vehicle shall have the right of way over another vehicle who is approaching from the left in an intersecting highway, and shall give the right of way to an operator of a vehicle approaching from the right on an intersecting highway. In cities or villages, or any place where traffic is large, or on streets usually congested with traffic of horse drawn vehicles or street cars, slow moving vehicles must keep near the right curb, allowing those moving rapidly to keep nearer the center of the street. All vehicles, however, must keep to the right of the center of the street.

Sec. 7. Laws repealed.—That the following sections of General Statutes, 1913, namely, Sections 2620, 2622, 2623, as amended by Section 2, Chapter 33, Laws 1915, Sections 2624, 2625, 2627, 2629 as amended by Section 3, Chapter 33, Laws 1915. Sections 2630 and 2642 as amended by Section 6, Chapter 33, Laws 1915, and also Section 7, Chapter 33, Laws 1915, Chapter 134, Laws 1919, Chapter 510, Laws 1919, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved April 23, 1921.

CHAPTER 473—H. F. No. 1179.

An act to appropriate money for the state educational institutions and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Appropriations for state educational institutions, etc.—The sums hereinafter named, or so much thereof as may be necessary, are hereby appropriated from any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated for the purposes specified in the following sections of this act, to be available where not otherwise stated, for each of the fiscal years ending June 30, 1922, and June 30, 1923.
