CHAPTER 490—S. F. No 641.

An act relating to certain national banks complying with Section 6405, General Statutes 1913, in certain respects and being entitled to the privileges extended to trust companies under Section 6410, General Statutes 1913.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. National banks may act as trustees when.—Any National Bank in this state granted a special permit by the Federal Reserve Board to act in a fiduciary capacity under the provision of Sub-Section K of Section 11, of the Federal Reserve Act as amended by the Act of September 26, 1918, may assign, transfer to, and deposit with the Superintendent of Banks, and procure his certificate therefor, the kinds and amounts of authorized securities required of a Trust Company in a city or village wherein such National Bank is located, by Section 6405, General Statutes 1913. Provided that such national bank which has a capital of $500,000 or over shall not be required to deposit such securities for more than 10% of such capital. The securities so deposited shall be held and maintained as a guaranty fund for such National Bank for the performance of its duties in such fiduciary capacity.

Whenever such National Bank has complied with said Section 6405, as aforesaid, no oath or security shall be required of it in the acceptance and performance of any such trust as provided in Section 6410, General Statutes 1913.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 23, 1921.
