

porated banks located within this state, nor to any indebtedness on which taxes have been properly and fully paid under the provisions of Sections 2301-2309, General Statutes of Minnesota 1913, nor to moneyed capital in the hands of individual citizens of this state coming into competition with the business of national banks; provided, that bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness in the hands of individual citizens not employed or engaged in the banking or investment business and representing merely personal investments not made in competition with such business, shall not be deemed moneyed capital within the meaning of this section."

Approved March 28, 1923.

CHAPTER 103—H. F. No. 26.

An act to amend Section 5197 General Statutes 1913 relating to wolf bounties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Bounties on wolves.—That Section 5197 General Statutes 1913 is hereby amended to read as follows:

"5197. Every person who shall kill a wolf in this State shall be rewarded in the sum of fifteen dollars for a full-grown animal and six dollars for a cub, to be paid by the State out of the revenue fund. Any county board may add to such reward and appropriate county funds therefor.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 28, 1923.

CHAPTER 104—H. F. No. 830.

An act legalizing the bonds of any city of the first class issued for the purpose of acquiring sites, constructing and equipping plants for the destruction of garbage and other refuse.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Bonds of certain municipalities legalized.—In all cases where a city of the first class acting under a home rule Charter or purporting to act under the provisions of Chapter 352, Laws of Minnesota for 1921, has heretofore, through its governing body, authorized the issuance of its bonds for the purpose of acquisition of site, constructing and equipping a plant for the destruction of garbage and other refuse, and has either sold such bonds to third parties or has issued them and has invested in or purchased the same with its own sinking fund; such bonds in which such investment has been made or so issued and sold are hereby in all respects made legal, valid and binding and may be assigned or resold by such city at public or private sale, or at the option of the governing body of such city, such bonds may be cancelled and new bonds for same amount be issued and sold, at not less than par value with accrued interest on such terms as may be fixed by the governing body of such city.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 28, 1923.

CHAPTER 105—H. F. No. 842.

An act relating to the issuance by the State Board of Dental Examiners of licenses to practice dentistry in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Dental examiners to issue license in certain cases.—The state board of dental examiners forthwith upon application therefor and without examination shall issue a license to practice dentistry in this state to any resident thereof who served in the military or naval forces of the United States in the World War, who has been honorably discharged or released from such service, who holds a diploma from the dental college of the University of Minnesota, and who, within sixty days after the passage and approval of this act, shall make application for such license and furnish to the board evidence of possessing the qualifications above specified and of being of good moral character.

Approved March 28, 1923.

CHAPTER 106—H. F. No. 847.

An act to provide for the deposit at interest and the disbursement of funds held by or paid to the state board of control and the child welfare boards of the several counties in trust for their wards or others.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Social welfare fund established.—Except as hereinafter expressly provided otherwise, all moneys and funds now or hereafter held by the State Board of Control and the child welfare boards of the several counties in trust or for the benefit of defective, illegitimate, dependent, neglected and delinquent children, or persons feeble-minded, inebriate or insane, or other wards or beneficiaries, under any law now or hereafter in force, shall be and the same hereby are constituted and made into a single fund to be