

CHAPTER 214—S. F. No. 399.

An act relating to the discontinuance of passenger trains.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Passenger trains not to be discontinued without the consent of railroad and warehouse commission.—No company operating any line of railroad by steam in this state as a common carrier of passengers shall discontinue the operation of any of its regularly scheduled intrastate passenger trains unless written application has been filed with the Railroad and Warehouse Commission for authority so to do and an order has been made by said Commission granting such authority. No such order shall be made until a hearing has been had and the Commission finds that by the discontinuance of such passenger train the public will not be deprived of reasonably adequate service.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 11, 1923.

CHAPTER 215—S. F. No. 413.

An act to amend Section 77 of Chapter 137 of Session Laws of Minnesota for 1917, said chapter being the housing act for cities of the first class.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Yards.—Section 77 of Chapter 137 of Session Laws of Minnesota for 1917 is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

“Sec. 77. No dwelling shall hereafter be enlarged or its lot be diminished, or other building placed on the lot, so that the rear yard or side yard shall be less in size than the minimum sizes prescribed in sections 22 and 23 of this act for dwellings hereafter erected. Provided, however, that new porches, either open or glazed, may be erected, not exceeding the width of the dwelling already erected, and new additions may be built on the side of any such dwelling, but such additions shall not project beyond the side line of the dwelling already erected.”

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 11, 1923.

CHAPTER 216—S. F. No. 636.

An act to amend Section 731 and 732 of the General Statutes for 1913, relating to aid to poor persons afflicted with tuberculosis.
