CHAPTER 220—S. F. No. 1187.

An act legalizing certain trust deeds executed and recorded prior to February 1st, 1922, which bore no witnesses to the execution thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Certain trust deeds legalized.—Every trust deed hertofore executed for the purpose of securing the payment of first mortgage bonds and recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the proper county of this state prior to February 1st, 1922, together with the record thereof, is hereby legalized and made valid and effective to all intents and purposes as against the objection that such trust deed bore no witnesses to the execution thereof.

Sec. 2. Application.—This act shall not apply to any action or proceeding wherein the validity of any such trust deed is questioned.

Approved April 11, 1923.

CHAPTER 221—H. F. No. 310.

An act authorizing a renewal of certain corporations organized under and pursuant to title 3 Chapter 34 Laws of Minnesota 1894, where such organization through inadvertence or otherwise, has expired, and has not been renewed, and has continued to transact its business, and providing for the renewal of its corporate existence from the date of expiration of its period of existence.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Corporate existence of certain corporations renewed.—That any corporation heretofore organized pursuant to title 3 chapter 34 Laws of Minnesota 1894, and whose period of duration expired on or before March 16, 1902, and through inadvertence or otherwise, the same has not been renewed, and such corporation has continued to transact its business, may renew its corporate existence from the date of the expiration of its period of duration with the same force and effect as if renewed prior to the expiration of its term of existence, by taking the same proceedings as now provided by law for the renewal of the corporate existence of such corporation in cases where such renewal is made before the end of its period of duration.

Provided, that such proceedings to obtain such extension, shall be taken within six months after the passage of this act, and provided further, that this act shall not affect any pending litigation nor apply to any corporation the charter of which has been declared forfeited by final judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction of this state.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 11, 1923.
