

CHAPTER 401—H. F. No. 1320.

An act to amend Section 7207, General Statutes, 1913, relative to selection of judge when the probate judge is disqualified or absent.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Judge of probate may act in any county when sitting judge is disqualified.—That Section 7207, General Statutes, 1913, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

7207. Whenever so disqualified, any probate judge may, and when it is made to appear by the verified petition of any person interested or his attorney that such ground of disqualification exists he shall, make an entry in his records, reciting such grounds, and by order appoint the probate judge of any county to hear, try, and determine the matters as to which such disqualification relates. Whenever, by reason of necessary absence, any probate judge shall be unable to act, he shall request, in writing, the probate judge of any county to act in his place in all matters arising during such absence. And the judge so appointed or requested shall attend for that purpose at such times as may be necessary. The expenses of the judge so acting shall be paid by the county in which he shall be so called to act.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 19, 1923.
