CHAPTER 430—S. F. No. 556.

An act defining and relating to the creation, acquisition, care, improvement, supervision, control and management of state parks, state public camp grounds, state monument sites and state monuments; withdrawing from sale and providing for the leasing and use of state lands bordering on or adjacent to meandered lakes and other public waters and watercourses; and defining certain offenses and prescribing penalties therefor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. State properties to be known as such.—All parks, public camp grounds and monument sites heretofore created or acquired by or at the expense of the state or which hereafter may be so created or acquired, and all monuments heretofore or hereafter erected by or at the expense of the state, shall be known respectively as state parks, state public camp grounds, state monument sites and state monuments in accordance with the respective legislative or other lawful designation thereof.

Sec. 2. State auditor to have charge of state properties.—The state auditor as state land commissioner, (hereinafter referred to as the auditor) hereby is charged with the care, improvement, supervision, control and management of all state parks, state public camp grounds, state monument sites, state monuments and state lands withdrawn from sale as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 3. State treasurer may accept gifts.—The state treasurer shall be and he hereby is authorized to receive and accept on behalf of the state any gift, donation, bequest or endowment of moneys or securities which may be made by any person by will or otherwise, to or for the benefit, support, maintenance or improvement of state parks, state public camp grounds, state monument sites or state monuments; provided, however, that no such gift, bequest or endowment shall be so accepted unless or until the governor, the auditor and the state treasurer shall determine that it is to the interest of the state to accept the same and in writing approve of and direct such acceptance. The net proceeds of such gifts, donations, bequests and endowments are hereby appropriated to be expended for the purposes for which they may be
