

CHAPTER 103—S. F. No. 204.

An act authorizing the establishment and maintenance by independent and special school districts of a junior college department and providing for the supervision and control of the state department of education over the same.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. School Districts to establish department of Junior College Work.—The school board of any independent or special school district, when authorized by a three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) vote of the district so to do, may establish and maintain a department of junior college work, to consist of not more than two years' work beyond a four-year high school course.

Sec. 2. Departments legalized.—Where a junior college has been heretofore established and is now being maintained in any independent or special school district the same is hereby legalized and made effective as fully as if established under and pursuant to the provisions hereof.

Sec. 3. State Department of Education to supervise.—The state department of education shall have the same supervision, control and powers over a junior college when established hereunder as it now has over other departments of the public school system.

Approved March 26, 1925.

CHAPTER 104—S. F. No. 319.

An act legalizing the extension of the corporate existence of certain township mutual fire insurance companies where the resolution extending said existence was not filed within the period of corporate existence.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Extension of corporate existence legalized.—Any township mutual fire insurance company which has heretofore attempted to extend or renew its corporate existence by filing a resolution so providing, with the Commissioner of Insurance, but such resolution was not filed within the period of corporate existence shall be deemed and considered to have extended and renewed its corporate existence to all intents and purposes and such attempted extension or renewal of the corporate existence is in all things legalized.

Approved March 26, 1925.
