CHAPTER 151—H. F. No. 367.

An act to provide for the conversion of bonds and certificates of indebtedness of the State of Minnesota, and for the reissuance of lost or stolen registered bonds, or certificates.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Certain bonds and certificates of indebtedness to be convertible.—Any bonds or certificates of indebtedness, heretofore or hereafter issued by the State of Minnesota and which are subject to registration as to both principal and interest, shall be convertible into bonds or certificates of larger denominations in the manner herein provided.

Sec. 2. Holder to surrender to State Treasurer.—The holder of any such bonds or certificates, whether in coupon or registered form, may surrender the same to the state treasurer for conversion and he shall issue in lieu thereof one or more new fully registered bonds or certificates, as the case may be, of like maturity, aggregating in amount the bonds or certificates so surrendered for conversion. Bonds or certificates so converted may be reconverted into fully registered bonds of smaller denominations, but which shall not be for less than one thousand dollars.

Sec. 3. State Treasurer to have bonds printed.—The State treasurer shall cause to be prepared and printed blank bonds and certificates to be used pursuant to the provisions of this act, and when issued they shall be signed by the state auditor and state treasurer and be attested by the secretary of state under the great seal of the State of Minnesota. Each such bond or certificate shall contain a recital that it is issued in substitution for bonds or certificates which have been surrendered and shall describe the surrendered bonds or certificates by number, denomination and date of maturity.

Sec. 4. State Treasurer to cancel surrendered bonds.—Upon
