CHAPTER 315—S. F. No. 131.

An act authorizing the transfer of jurisdiction over the guardianship of a ward in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Transfer of guardianship.—When letters of guardianship have been heretofore or hereafter granted over the person or estate, or both, of a ward, by the probate court of any county in this state, and by reason of a change in the residence of said ward or other cause the convenient performance and supervision of the duties and functions of such guardianship, and the best interests of the ward, would be served by transferring jurisdiction over such guardianship to the probate court of another county, the court having such jurisdiction may, on petition of the guardian or of any person who would be entitled to petition for the appointment of a guardian for such ward, setting forth the facts, so transfer the same, by order duly made and entered as in other cases. Notice of a hearing on such petition shall be given as in other cases, and unless such transfer is assented to in writing by the guardian, his sureties, the ward, and the person having the custody of said ward, shall be personally served upon each of them, if they can be found, at least eight days before the date of hearing. The court may at the same time, or before transferring the proceedings, require the filing of an account by the guardian, and require or take such further action in the matter as shall be required or desirable, in the interests of the ward or of any other person concerned. If a transfer is ordered by the court, it shall be to the county named in the petition, unless good cause exists to the contrary. Any order made hereunder shall be subject to appeal as in other cases.

Sec. 2. Probate Court shall certify proceedings.—Upon the transfer being made, the court shall certify to the court to which the matter is transferred all its files and proceedings in said matter, and the proceeding shall therefore be handled under the jurisdiction of the latter court, as if originally commenced therein, but appeals from any order of the first court shall be heard in the district court of its county unless transferred by such court for any of the causes permitted or required by law in civil actions.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 23, 1925.

CHAPTER 316—S. F. No. 230.

An act to amend Section 8841, General Statutes of Minnesota, 1923, relating to license to sell, mortgage, or lease real estate by the Probate Court.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. License to sell real estate.—That Section 8841, General Statutes of Minnesota, 1923, be amended so as to read as follows:

“8841. The license shall describe the land to be sold, mortgaged, or leased. It may specify the order in which several tracts shall be sold, and shall direct whether the land shall be sold at private sale or public auction. If any part of such real estate has been devised, and not charged in such devise with the payment of debts, it shall direct that part not so devised to be sold first, and, if any lands have been sold by heirs and devisees, it shall direct the remainder to be sold first. When the petition is to mortgage lands, the license shall fix the maximum amount and rate of interest for which the mortgage may be given, and specify for what purpose the proceeds shall be used. Such license shall be and remain in force until revoked by the court; Provided, that no sale at private sale shall be made or confirmed under said license after one year from its date, unless the land so sold shall have been reappraised under order of the court within thirty (30) days next before such sale.

Approved April 23, 1925.

CHAPTER 317—S. F. No. 399.

An act to amend Section 674 of the General Statutes of Minnesota for 1913, being Section 646 of the General Statutes of 1923, relating to appeals from the allowance or disallowance of claims by county boards.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. That Section 674 of the General Statutes of Minnesota for 1913, being Section 646 of the General Statutes of 1923, be and the same hereby is amended so as to read as follows:

674. Claims against county—Appeal.—When any claim against a county is disallowed by the board in whole or in part, a claimant may appeal from its decisions to the district court by
