CHAPTER 32.—H. F. No. 50.

(Sec. 3694, G. S. 1923)

An act to amend Section 3418, General Statutes, Minnesota 1913, as amended by Chapter 106, Laws 1915, relating to property that may be insured by mutual hail and cyclone insurance companies.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. What may be insured by mutual companies.—That Section 3418, General Statutes, 1913, as amended by Chapter 106, Laws of 1915, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"3418. No such company shall insure any other property than country churches and school houses, farm dwellings, mutual or co-operative creameries, cheese factories, barns and other buildings, and hay, grain and other farm products therein, or stored or growing on the premises, bedding, wearing apparel, printed books, pictures and frames, household furniture, family stores and provisions while therein or in the cellar beneath, farm implements, vehicles and machinery on or off the premises, threshing machines, or livestock thereon or running at large. No company, in its hail department, shall insure more than 3,200 acres in any one township; there shall be at least one-half mile between each risk assumed by such company, except that risks may be assumed which cover the growing crops upon not more than 320 acres of contiguous or immediately adjacent lands. No such company shall incur, lay out or expend, in any one calendar year, as and for the expenses of conducting such business, more than its application or survey fees and forty (40) per cent of its total premiums or assessments actually collected. But no company shall be required to limit its annual expenses to less than one thousand dollars ($1,000)."

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 24, 1925.
