

That parties to any policy of life insurance now or hereafter issued shall have the right at any time to mutually agree in writing for an extension of time in which to pay a second or subsequent premium on said policy, upon condition that the failure to pay said amount agreed upon at the time agreed, shall lapse the policy as of the date mutually agreed upon in said writing, provided, that no such agreement shall impair any right to extended or paid up insurance which the insured may have under said policy nor any right to have the premiums, any part thereof or the amount payable for such extension charged against the policy under the terms of the policy. No such agreement need be attached to or made a part of the insurance policy so affected.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 24, 1925.
