CHAPTER 426—S. F. No. 674.

An act in relation to the organization of the state government.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

ARTICLE I.

Section 1. Departments and agencies of state government established.—The following departments and agencies of the state government are hereby created and established, to be designated and known respectively as follows: The Executive Council, the Department of Administration and Finance, the Department of Conservation, the Department of Drainage and Waters, the Department of Dairy and Food, the Department of Agriculture, the Department of Commerce, the Department of Health, the Department of Education, the Department of Highways, the Department of Labor and Industry, the Department of Public Institutions, the Department of Taxation and the Department of Rural Credit. All of said departments and all officials and agencies of the state government shall be subject to the provisions and limitations of this act.

ARTICLE II.

Section 1. Executive Council—Duties.—The Executive Council, in this article called the council, shall consist of the governor, the attorney general, the state auditor, the state treasurer, and the secretary of state, of which council the governor shall be chairman. The council shall appoint, fix the salary of, and remove at pleasure an executive secretary who shall also be the secretary of the state board of pardons and of the state board of investment, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the council.

Sec. 2. Executive Council—Duties.—The council shall have and exercise the rights and powers and perform the duties now by law vested in or imposed upon the board of timber commissioners, the state board of deposit, the Minnesota state land commission, and the state board of relief. It shall also exercise the authority and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the state auditor, the state treasurer, and the attorney general under the provisions of Chapter 412, Laws 1921, and the duties imposed
