

CHAPTER 105—S. F. No. 625

An act to amend General Statutes 1923, Section 7912, relating to societies for securing homes for children.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

"7912 Twenty or more citizens of this state may form a corporation for the purpose of securing homes in private families, by adoption or otherwise, for orphans, or homeless, abandoned, neglected, or grossly illtreated children. Such incorporators shall file with the secretary of state their certificate of incorporation, accompanied by a certificate of the board of control, that said corporation is trustworthy and entitled to confidence. A like certificate of the board of control shall be filed every ten years thereafter. Such corporation shall have a main office, adopt and publish rules for the transaction of their business and its financial records shall be open to public inspection."

Approved March 28, 1929.

CHAPTER 106—H. F. No. 731

An act authorizing the payment of disability allowances, in certain cases, to certain employes of cities of over 50,000 inhabitants, including each city of the first class now or hereafter operating under a home rule charter adopted under and pursuant to the provisions of Section 36, Article IV, of the State Constitution.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Disability allowances in certain cities.—That every city of the state now or hereafter having over 50,000 inhabitants, including each such city now or hereafter operating under a home rule charter adopted pursuant to the provisions of Section 36, Article IV, of the Constitution of the State, which adopts or has adopted a system of paying pensions or retirement allowances to retired municipal employes pursuant to Chapter 522, General Laws 1919, and the retirement board in control of such system are hereby authorized to pay pensions or retirement allowances to each and every employe who at the time of ratification of the system provided by said Chapter 522, General Laws 1919, was, is or shall be then receiving compensation from the city under the provisions of Chapter 467, General Laws 1913, and acts amendatory thereof, and (a) who, at the time of the injury for which such compensation is paid, was, is or shall be receiving salary or pay as an employe in excess of $750.00 per annum, or (b) who, at the time of retirement from the city service, had been or shall have been employed by the city for periods which in the aggregate equal 20 or more seasons of five or more months each in not to exceed an equal number of years, at rates of pay which did not provide an average amount in excess of $750.00 per annum, and has attained the age of 55 years.

Sec. 2. Amount of allowance.—The pension or retirement allowance to which any such employe shall be entitled who at the time of the adoption of such plan had been receiving in excess of $750.00 per annum shall be of the same amount and shall be calculated in the same manner as would have been pursued if the plan as provided by Chapter 522, General Laws 1919, and acts amendatory thereof, had been in effect at the time when the injury was received for which such compensation is paid as provided by Chapter 467, General Laws 1913, and acts amendatory thereof.

The pension or retirement allowance to which any such employe at rates of pay less than an average of $750.00 per annum shall be entitled shall be of the same amount and shall be calculated in the same manner as provided in Section 6, Chapter 522, General Laws 1919.

Sec. 3. Retirement board to determine amounts.—It shall be the duty of the said retirement board to determine the annual amount of any such allowance and to provide for payment thereof; provided, that payment thereof shall not begin until the compensation as provided by Chapter 467, General Laws 1913, and acts amendatory thereof, has ceased.

Sec. 4. Tax levy.—The retirement board in any such city shall include in the financial statement required by Section 14 of said Chapter 522, General Laws 1919, the amount, in addition to all other amounts, of the portion of any such disability or retirement allowance chargeable against the city, and it shall be the duty of the proper city officials in such city to levy a tax sufficient to provide such amount in addition to the amount to be levied pursuant to said Chapter 522, General Laws 1919, and amendments thereof.

Sec. 5. Powers of retirement board.—The retirement board provided by said Chapter 522, General Laws 1919, is hereby invested with all the rights, privileges and obligations relative to any such disability or retirement allowance and to the funds from which installments thereof are to be paid that pertain to the allowances and funds authorized by Chapter 522, General Laws 1919, including the right, privilege or obligation to cancel any such allowance under conditions specified therein.

Approved March 28, 1929.
