CHAPTER 295—S. F. No. 658

An act to amend General Statutes 1923, Section 739, relating to appropriating money for the purpose of advertising the agricultural resources of any county.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. County Boards may appropriate money for advertising purposes in certain counties.—That General Statutes 1923, Section 739, be amended to read as follows :

"739. The board of county commissioners of any county in this state having less than 240,000 inhabitants, may appropriate annually out of the general revenue fund of such county, a sum of money not exceeding a sum equal to five cents per capita of the population of such county according to the last census, either federal or state, of such county. Such sum so appropriated shall be paid to any incorporated development society or organization of this state which in the opinion of the board of county commissioners will use such money for the best interests of such county in advertising, improving or developing the agricultural resources of such county, and such other matter as may tend to a development of the county; provided that in any such county having an assessed valuation of over three hundred million (300,000,000) dollars, the county board of said county may appropriate a sum not exceeding a sum equal to ten cents per capita of the population of such county for the carrying on of said work in said county."
