CHAPTER 344—S. F. No. 1240

An act providing for the creation and establishment of separate election districts within certain townships and the appointment of election officials therein, and repealing Chapter 95 of the Laws of Minnesota for the year 1929.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Separate election districts established.—In any township within the State of Minnesota in which there is only one election district and one polling place and which township contains not less than 15 full sections nor more than 17 full sections, and not less than five fractional sections nor more than ten (10) fractional sections, according to the Government survey thereof, and in which township there is an unincorporated contiguous platted area in which platted area reside not less than sixty (60) legal voters, the Town Board of such township shall, upon a written petition duly signed by not less than forty legal voters residing in said platted area, set off such platted area into a separate election district and establish a separate polling place therein as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 2. Petition to be filed.—Certificate.—Such petition shall be addressed to said Town Board and filed with the Town Clerk of said Town. It shall designate such platted area proposed to be included in said election district, and shall also designate a suitable location in said area in which a polling place may be established. Within thirty days from the date of the filing of said petition said Town Board shall meet, and by resolution designate such platted area as a separate election district, and shall also, as a part of said resolution, fix the location of a polling place within such area. Within ten days thereafter the Clerk of said Town shall file with the County Auditor of the County within which said Town is located; a certified copy of said resolution and upon the filing of such copy, the area therein designated shall constitute a separate election district.

The location of such polling place may, from time to time, be changed by said Town Board, but the same shall always be situated within such new election district.

Sec. 3. Application.—Nothing in this act shall apply to town elections, and all town meetings and the election of all town officers shall continue to be held at such place within said town as has heretofore been designated for such purpose, or may hereafter be designated in accordance with law.

Sec. 4. Notice of new election district to be posted.—A suitable notice of the establishment of such new election district shall be posted in three public places in such Town within ten days from the filing of such certified copy of such resolution with the County Auditor, and thereafter all elections of every kind, both primary and general, except the election of town officers, held within said area not less than thirty days distant from the date of the filing of such copy with the County Auditor shall be held at said designated polling place.

The said Town Board shall, after such separate election district has been so constituted, at the times prescribed by law for such action, appoint three election judges and two election clerks as provided by law to serve in such separate election district as a board of registration and as an election board.

Such election judges and clerks shall reside within the election district within which they are appointed to serve.

Sec. 5. Law repealed.—Chapter 95 of the Laws of 1929 is hereby expressly repealed.

Approved April 24, 1929.

CHAPTER 345—H. F. No. 892

An act providing for the vacation and discontinuance of town organizations in any county now or hereafter having an area in excess of 750,000 acres and now or hereafter having not more than
