

additional period not exceeding thirty (30) years from and after the time of its expired period of duration, with the same force and effect as if renewed prior to the expiration of its term of existence, by taking the same proceedings and by paying into the state treasury the same incorporation fees as now provided by law for the renewal of the corporate existence of such corporations in cases where such renewal is made before the end of its period of duration.

Sec. 2. Proceedings — when taken.—Such proceedings to obtain such extension shall be taken within six (6) months after the approval of this act.

Sec. 3. To be retroactive.—When such steps are taken within such period, such proceedings shall relate back to the date of the expiration of said original corporate period, and when said period is extended as provided by this act any and all corporate acts and contracts done, performed, made and entered into after the expiration of said original period, shall be, and each is hereby declared to be legal and valid.

Sec. 4. Application.—This act shall not apply to any corporation the charter of which has been declared forfeited by the final judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction of this State, nor to any corporation as to which there is pending any action or proceeding to any of the courts of this State, for the forfeiture of its charter, nor shall this act affect any action or proceeding now pending in any of the Courts of this State in relation to any corporation described in Section 1 of this act.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 31, 1931.

---

CHAPTER 108—S. F. No. 755

An act authorizing the renewal of the period of corporate existence of certain incorporated creamery associations.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Corporate existence of certain creamery associations renewed.—Any incorporated Creamery Association, whose period of duration has expired less than two years before the passage of this act, and which has continued to carry on its business without a renewal of its said period, and has heretofore attempted to renew the period of its corporate existence for a period not exceeding thirty years from and after the expiration of said original period of duration, and such renewal proceedings were in all respects legal and in accordance with law, save that said proceedings were commenced but not completed prior to the expiration of said original period and have not yet all been taken and completed, may renew the period of its corporate existence for an additional term not exceeding thirty years from the date of such expiration of said original period, by completing such proceedings begun before the expiration of such original period but not completed at the time of the passage of this act; provided, however, that the proceedings to obtain such renewal of such corporate existence shall be completed within six months after the passage of this act.

Sec. 2. Provisions to be retroactive.—In any such case, such proceedings shall relate back to the time of expiration of said original corporate period, and any and all corporate acts and contracts of such association done or entered into after the expiration of said original period shall be, and each is hereby declared to be legal and valid.

Sec. 3. Application.—This act shall not apply to any cooperative creamery association, the charter of which has been declared forfeited by the final judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction of this State, nor to any act or proceedings now pending in any of the courts of this State.

Approved March 31, 1931.

---

CHAPTER 109—H. F. No. 340

An act relating to the power of common school districts to build a residence for use of teachers.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. School districts may build residences for use of teachers.—That common school districts, when authorized by a two-thirds majority of all the electors voting at said election, are hereby empowered to erect, purchase or acquire a dwelling house for the use of its teacher or teachers; provided, however, that the proposition shall be submitted only at a meeting or election the notice of which stated that such proposition would be considered or submitted thereat.

Approved April 1, 1931.