CHAPTER 286—S. F. No. 1056

An Act authorizing the Executive Council of the State of Minnesota, when deemed in the public interest, to permit the diversion or drainage of public waters where the State has entered into a contract for removing minerals from the beds of any such waters, to extend such contracts, and to permit such diversion or drainage for the purpose of mining riparian lands.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Executive council may extend contracts.—Whenever a contract or agreement has been made with the State of Minnesota pursuant to Chapter 110, General Laws 1917, and the laws amendatory thereof, covering the bed of a public lake or river, the Executive Council is empowered, upon application of the owner or holder thereof, to extend said contract or agreement for an additional period no greater than the period covered by the terms of the original contract or agreement, where the Executive Council deems such extension necessary or desirable in the public interest. The Executive Council is further empowered to grant a license for such definite term or period as it may determine, to the owner or holder
