CHAPTER 30—H. F. No. 261

An act to amend Mason's 1938 Minn. Supp., Section 669-12, authorizing counties to accept gifts of property for park and other purposes, and in aid of the work and objects of farm bureaus or similar associations, and authorizing the county board to appropriate money for maintenance and improvement of such property.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Counties may accept property for park purposes.—Mason's 1938 Minn. Supp., Section 669-12, is hereby amended to read as follows :

"669-12. Any county in this state may receive by grant, gift, devise or bequest, and take charge of, own, hold, control, invest and administer free from taxation, in accordance with the terms of the trust or the conditions of the gift, any real property not to exceed 40 acres in any one county for the use and benefit of the inhabitants of said county or as park or recreation grounds, and in the encouragement, aid, and maintenance of county co-operative work and education in agriculture and home economics, and in aid and furtherance of the object and purpose of the Farm Bureau Association in said county. Such county may, from time to time, by resolution of the County Board, appropriate, from the County Revenue Fund, such sum or sums as may by the Board be deemed necessary to suitably maintain, improve and care for said property for such use and purpose, not exceeding, however, the sum of $1200.00 in any one year."
