

CHAPTER 155—S. F. No. 247

An act relating to township mutual fire insurance companies, amending Mason's Supplement 1940, Section 3659.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Law amended.—Mason's Supplement 1940, Section 3659, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"3659. Subdivision 1. What may be insured.—No township mutual fire insurance company heretofore organized and no company organized pursuant to this Act shall insure any property outside of the limits of the town or towns in which such company is authorized by its certificate or articles of incorporation to transact business, except personal property temporarily outside of such authorized territory and, except as hereinafter further provided; nor shall any township mutual fire insurance company insure any property other than dwellings and their contents, farm buildings and their contents, livestock, farm machinery, automobiles, country store buildings, and the household goods therein, threshing machines, farm produce anywhere on the premises, churches, and their contents, school houses, and their contents, society and town halls, and their contents, country blacksmith shops and their contents, parsonages and their contents, and the barns and contents used in connection therewith, creameries, cheese factories and their equipment and contents, and respective operators dwelling houses and contents, and barns and contents used in connection therewith, and dwellings together with the usual outbuildings and the usual contents of both said dwellings and outbuildings in any city, village or borough of 1,250 or less inhabitants, and any county poor farm together with contents and such personal property as used in connection therewith and which real property, contents and personal property is situated in such county wherein such Township Mutual Fire Insurance Companies are operating, providing, when at a duly called special or annual meeting of the policy holders it shall be duly decided by them, by a majority vote, to do so.

may include in such insurance any outbuildings, farm produce, stock or other farm property on such farm outside of such limits; provided, however, any such company is hereby authorized to insure county fair buildings whether the same are situated either within or without the limits of a duly incorporated village or city.

Subdivision 3. Law not to apply to mutual fire insurance company unless expressly stated.—No law relating to insurance companies now in force in this state shall apply to township mutual fire insurance companies unless it shall be expressly designated in such law that it is applicable to such companies.

Approved April 9, 1941.
