

CHAPTER 356—H. F. No. 1349

An act relating to children committed to the state training school for boys and the Minnesota home school for girls, transferring certain powers and duties respecting such children to the director of public institutions, transferring appropriations therefor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Certain powers and duties imposed upon director of public institutions.—All powers and duties respecting children committed to the state training school for boys and the Minnesota home school for girls heretofore vested in or imposed upon the state director of public institutions, the state board of parole, the director of social welfare, or any other agency of the state except the director of public institutions, under Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Sections 4472, 4473 and 8648, and Mason's Supplement 1940, Sections 3199-102 and 3199-106, and acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, are hereby transferred to, vested in, and imposed upon the director of public institutions.

Sec. 2. Appropriations and property transferred.—All unexpended appropriations made to any agency of the state except the director of public institutions for any of the purposes mentioned in Section 1, together with all records, equipment, and other property pertaining to such purposes in the hands of such other agency, are hereby transferred to the director of public institutions.

Sec. 3. Effective July 1, 1941.—This act shall take effect and be in force from and after July 1, 1941.

Approved April 21, 1941.
