CHAPTER 64—H. F. No. 64

An act authorizing the Industrial Commission to direct payment of workmen's compensation benefits and allow attorney fees in case of disputed liability.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Industrial Commission to direct compensation benefits.—Where benefits are payable under the provisions of this act, and a dispute arises between two or more employers or insurers as to which of said employers or insurers is liable for payment thereof, the commission may direct the payment of said benefits by one or more of said employers or insurers pending the determination of liability. Upon determination of liability the commission shall order the party liable for said benefits to reimburse any other party for payments made with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum. The commission may also award reasonable attorney fees in favor of the claimant and against the party held liable for said benefits.

Sec. 2. Order not to be used as evidence.—Any order of the commission under the provisions of this act directing the payments of said benefits by one or more of said employers or insurers pending the determination of liability shall not be used as evidence before any referee, commission, or court in which said dispute is pending.

Approved March 14, 1941.
