CHAPTER 243—S. F. No. 5

An act appropriating money for the state compensation revolving fund and amending Minnesota Statutes 1941, Section 176.81.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1941, section 176.81 is amended to read as follows:

176.81. Maintenance of funds. Subdivision 1. This fund shall be maintained as follows:

Subd. 2. Every state department wherein the salaries of its employees are fixed by a managing or governing board, which board controls the expenditures of appropriations made to such departments, and which departments are by section 176.80 declared to be self-sustaining departments for the purpose of this chapter, and every state department or division thereof which is substantially financially self-sustaining by reason of income and revenue from its activities, shall at the end of every fiscal year pay into such fund such sum as the industrial commission shall certify has been paid out of the revolving fund during the year to employees of the department or divisions thereof or to dependents of these employees on account of compensation, medical, hospital, or other expenses as enumerated in section 176.79; provided, that on and after July 1, 1935, the state highway department shall reimburse the fund for moneys paid to its employees or their dependents at such times and in such amounts as the commission may by order require;

Subd. 3. Departments or divisions of the state which are not self-sustaining to any substantial degree shall, at the end of every biennium beginning June 30, 1935, pay into the fund such sum as the commission shall certify has been paid out of the revolving fund during the biennium to employees of the departments or divisions or the dependents of these employees on account of compensation, medical, hospital, or other expenses as enumerated in section 176.79;

It is hereby made the duty of the heads of such departments of the state to anticipate and make provision for these payments by including them in their budget requests to the legislature;

Subd. 4. Departments or divisions thereof which are partially self-sustaining shall at the end of every fiscal year pay into the fund such proportion of the sum which the industrial commission shall certify has been paid out of the revolving fund during the year to employees of the departments or divisions thereof or the dependents of these employees on account of compensation, medical, hospital, or other expenses as enumerated in section 176.79, as the total of their income and revenue bears to their annual cost of operating, and at the end of every biennium, beginning June 30, 1935, shall pay the balance of the sums so certified and during the biennium shall anticipate and make provisions for such payments by including the same in their budget requests to the legislature.

Subd. 5. There is hereby appropriated from the general revenue fund in the state treasury to the state compensation revolving fund the sum of $50,000 to be used in connection with the payment of workmen's compensation claims of employees of the state, which, with the sum of $74,013.12 heretofore appropriated from the trunk highway fund of the department of highways in the state treasury to the state compensation revolving fund to be used in connection with the payment of workmen's compensation claims of employees of the department of highways and, with $75,986.88 already appropriated, totals $200,000; the latter sum to constitute the state compensation revolving fund and to be used and maintained as herein provided.

Approved April 10, 1945.

CHAPTER 244—S. F. No. 55

An act relating to insurance agents or solicitors; amending Minnesota Statutes 1941, Section 60.68.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1941, Section 60.68, is amended to read as follows:

60.68. Solicitors, qualifications, applications, revocation of license. No person shall be licensed by the commissioner as an insurance agent or solicitor if the commissioner shall be satisfied that the person is incompetent or unqualified to act as an insurance agent or solicitor, or that the person does not in good faith intend to carry on the business of insurance agent or solicitor, or intends to secure a license for the sole purpose of writing insurance upon his own life or property; or that the person is untrustworthy or of bad moral character; or that the person has unreasonably failed to pay over to any insurer, agent, or solicitor, or policyholder or member of any insurance company or association entitled thereto, the whole or any part of any premium or return premium, or moneys or other thing of value in his hands, arising out of any insur-
