

National Guard, Naval, Coast Guard, Marine Reserve, who, in order to receive military training with the Armed Forces of the United States, not to exceed two weeks in any one calendar year, leaves a position, other than a temporary position, in the employ of any employer, and who shall give evidence of the satisfactory completion of such training, and who is still qualified to perform the duties of such position, shall be entitled to be restored to his previous or a similar position, in the same status, pay, and seniority, and such period of absence for military training shall be construed as an absence with leave and without pay.

Sec. 2. Subd. 2. Not to affect normal vacation and other privileges. Such absence for military training will in no wise affect the employee's right to receive normal vacation, sick leave, bonus, advancement, and other advantages of his employment normally to be anticipated in his particular position.

Sec. 3. Subd. 3. Choice of relief in case of disobedience. In the event of the failure of any employer to comply with the foregoing, the employee may, at his election, bring an action at law for damages for such non-compliance, or apply to the District Court for such equitable relief as may be just and proper under the circumstances.
