All proceedings heretofore taken in any such village for the authorization, issuance, and sale of bonds for such purpose or purposes are hereby validated, ratified, approved, legalized, and confirmed and declared to be valid and in full force and effect and such villages are authorized and empowered to complete such proceedings and to issue and deliver bonds at not less than par and accrued interest in accordance therewith, and all such bonds including those sold and delivered before the passage of this act shall be binding, legal, valid, and enforceable general obligations of such villages.

Sec. 2. Limitation. This act shall not affect any bonds the validity of which is questioned in any litigation pending when this act shall take effect.

Approved February 8, 1949.

CHAPTER 12—H. F. No. 143

[Not Coded]

An act to extend the time for closing the affairs and disposing of the property of certain corporations whose existence has been terminated by forfeiture or otherwise, not including, however, corporations having the power of eminent domain.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Corporate powers extended. When any corporation, other than a corporation having the power of eminent domain, whose existence was terminated on or before March 1, 1944, by forfeiture or by expiration of its period of duration as fixed by its charter or otherwise, did not or shall not fully close its affairs and convey all of its property within the period of three years succeeding the date of such termination, and when such corporation has or claims or appears to have or claim any interest in or to any property, the time limit for so closing its affairs and disposing of its property is hereby extended for two years after the passage of this act for the purpose of permitting the corporation to close its affairs and disposing of its property.

Sec. 2. Two years extension. Any and all transfers and conveyances of property by the corporation made or done after the date of the termination of its corporate existence and on or before two years after the passage of this act are hereby legalized and made of the same force and effect as if the same had been done within the three years after the date of the termination of its corporate existence.

Sec. 3. Limitation. This act shall not affect any action or proceedings now pending.

Approved February 10, 1949.
