CHAPTER 47—S. F. No. 70

[Not Coded]

An act authorizing the establishment and maintenance of a memorial to Will H. Dilg in John A. Latsch State Park.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Will H. Dilg, memorial in Latsch State Park. The commissioner of conservation is authorized to permit the construction in John A. Latsch State Park of a memorial in honor of Will H. Dilg, commemorating his services as a conservation leader in connection with the founding and organization of the Izaak Walton League of America and otherwise; provided, that the cost of construction and maintenance thereof shall be defrayed by the Izaak Walton League of America or others who may contribute thereto, without expense to the state. Such memorial shall be of such form and design as the commissioner shall approve, and shall be located upon such site, not exceeding 20 feet by 40 feet in size, as he shall designate within said park, which shall thereafter be set apart and maintained for the purposes of such memorial.

Approved February 26, 1949.
