

which newspaper shall be the official newspaper of the county, and in each such county the proceedings shall be published also in one other qualified newspaper printed and published in the county outside the county-seat. The board may reject any offer if, in its judgment, the public interests so require, and may thereupon designate a newspaper without regard to any rejected offer. In any county whose population exceeds 50,000, and is less than 250,000, the proceedings may be published in one daily and one weekly newspaper at their respective county-seats. If the official newspaper of the county shall cease to exist for any reason, except by consolidation with another newspaper, the county board shall have authority to designate another newspaper for the remainder of the year.

CHAPTER 70—H. F. No. 296

[Not Coded]

An act relating to the salary of the clerks and employees in probate courts in counties having more than 300,000 and less than 450,000 inhabitants; amending Laws 1939, Chapter 280.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. That Laws 1939, Chapter 280, be amended to read:

Section 1. Clerks and employees in probate court of Ramsey county; salary. In all counties having more than 300,000 and less than 450,000 inhabitants, the personnel of the probate court, other than the judge, shall consist of one clerk, two deputy clerks, one reporter and such other employees as the judge shall determine. The salaries of such clerk, deputy clerks, reporter and employees shall be fixed by the Board of County Commissioners, and all except the clerk and reporter shall be employed pursuant to such civil service laws in force in said county.
