

association upon the date of his death, and his widow and dependent children, if any, are eligible for benefits from the funds of such association.

Approved May 1, 1963.

CHAPTER 423—H. F. No. 1071

[Not Coded]

An act relating to the city of Fairmont; authorizing the board of directors of the policemen's relief association to set certain pension benefits within certain limitations.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Fairmont, city of; police relief benefits. The board of directors of the policemen's relief association of the city of Fairmont shall set the amount of monthly pension benefits payable to eligible recipients, who become eligible for pension after passage of this act, subject to the following limitations:

(a) No policeman eligible for a pension shall be paid less than one half of the current maximum monthly pay of a patrolman;

(b) No policeman's widow who is eligible for pension benefits shall be paid less than one fourth of the current maximum monthly pay of a patrolman;

(c) Each policeman's child who is eligible for pension benefits shall be paid 1/16 of the current maximum monthly pay of a patrolman;

(d) The total maximum pension benefits payable to an eligible widow and eligible children of a policeman is one half of the current maximum monthly pay of a patrolman.

The provisions of this section supersede any conflicting provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 423.41 to 423.62.

Sec. 2. This act takes effect when approved by a majority of the governing body of the city of Fairmont and upon compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021.

Approved May 1, 1963.

Changes or additions indicated by italics, deletions by ~~strikeout~~.