

borrower, shall furnish to the borrower a certificate or certificates signed by the factor stating that such indebtedness has been paid or such lien satisfied, or both. When such certificate or certificates are filed with the officer with whom the original notice of lien has been filed, such lien shall be deemed discharged. Failure of the factor to deliver any such certificate or satisfaction within ten days after any such request shall subject the factor to double damages at the suit of any person injured by such neglect. All liens shall be deemed to have expired three years from the date of filing of the notice of creation thereof unless prior to the expiration of such three year period the factor files a statement under oath that the indebtedness secured by said factor's lien has not yet been paid in full or otherwise discharged, and upon the filing of such statement the said lien shall be deemed to continue for one year from the date of such filing or until the prior payment of the indebtedness but any such lien may be extended for successive additional periods of one year after such initial three year period, by filing with the officer with whom the original notice of lien has been filed, within 60 days next preceding the expiration of each period, an affidavit made by the factor stating that the indebtedness secured by such lien has not been paid in full or otherwise discharged.
