CHAPTER 727—H. F. No. 1770

[Not Coded]

An act relating to the city of Minneapolis, pertaining to automobile allowance to be paid to city officers or employees using their own automobiles in the performance of their public duties; defining automobile allowance; and providing for authority to the governing body to enact an ordinance pertaining to the method and payment of such automobile allowance.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minneapolis; city employees, reimbursed for use of automobile. The governing body of the city of Minneapolis is hereby authorized and empowered by ordinance to provide for the payment of automobile allowance to any city officer or employee who officially uses his own automobile in the performance of his public duties. Such ordinance shall include any limitations as to amount and persons qualified for such automobile allowance, the formula to be used for such allowance, and any other limitation or safeguard which the governing body deems to be expedient in the public interest.

Sec. 2. Automobile allowance is defined as the payment of compensation or reimbursement made by the city, through the use of any formula decided upon by the governing body, to an officer or employee for the use of his own automobile in the performance of his public duty.

Sec. 3. The governing body of the said city shall have full authority and control, free from any other limitation except as provided in this act, to provide the method of payment, the formula for payment, and the amount of such automobile allowance to be paid. This act, insofar as the city is concerned, shall be deemed to be paramount to any other statute of the state of Minnesota now existing.
