

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1967, Section 260.241, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Juveniles; custody of children; guardian. ~~The guardian appointed by a juvenile court under the provisions of this section has charge of the person of the child. This guardian has the right to make decisions affecting the person of the child, including but not limited to the right to consent to marriage, enlistment in the armed forces, to medical, surgical, or psychiatric treatment, and adoption. The guardian has legal custody of the child unless legal custody is given by the court to another person; the guardian has the right and responsibility of reasonable visitation, except as limited by court order. A juvenile court guardianship does not include the guardianship of any estate of the child.~~

(a) A guardian appointed under the provisions of subdivision 1 has legal custody of his ward unless the court which appoints him gives legal custody to some other person. If the court awards such custody to a person other than such guardian, the guardian nonetheless has the right and responsibility of reasonable visitation, except as limited by court order.

(b) Such guardian may make major decisions affecting the person of his ward, including but not limited to giving consent (when such consent is legally required) to the marriage, enlistment in the armed forces, medical, surgical, or psychiatric treatment, or adoption of the ward. When, pursuant to clause (a) of subdivision 1, the commissioner of public welfare is appointed such guardian, he may delegate to the welfare board of the county in which, after such appointment, the ward resides, the authority to act for him in decisions affecting the person of his ward, including but not limited to giving consent to the marriage, enlistment in the armed forces, medical, surgical, or psychiatric treatment of the ward.

(c) A guardianship created under the provisions of subdivision 1 shall not in itself include the guardianship of any estate of the ward.
