

Section 1. Robbinsdale, city of; firemen's relief. Notwithstanding any provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 69.06, the firemen's relief association of the city of Robbinsdale may provide in its certificate of incorporation or bylaws for payment of a service pension not exceeding $100 per month to each of its members who retires after not less than 20 years of service in the fire department and has attained 50 years of age. The certificate or bylaws may also provide for an increase in the amount of such service pension in the amount of $2 for each year of service in excess of 20, but the total pension payable under this section shall not exceed $120.

Sec. 2. In lieu of a periodic service pension under section 1, the articles or bylaws may provide for payment of a lump sum pension in an amount not exceeding $250 per year of service to any retired member who qualifies for the periodic pension, in a total amount which does not exceed $7,000.

Sec. 3. Sections 1 and 2 apply to persons who retire before the effective date of this act as well as to those who retire on or after that date. Section 1 applies to pensions payable in respect to periods commencing after May 31, 1969.

Sec. 4. Before January 1, 1971, the association shall obtain an actuarial survey showing the normal support rate required to finance currently accruing liabilities and the annual rate of support required to amortize the deficit, if any, in the fund by January 1, 1991. Commencing in 1971, the city shall annually levy against its assessed valuation an amount which, together with other revenue to the fund, is sufficient to equal the normal support rate and annual rate of support required to amortize the deficit, if any, by the date specified above. The proceeds of the levy shall be paid by the city to the fiscal officer of the association.

Sec. 5. This act is effective upon its approval by the governing body of the city of Robbinsdale and compliance with Minnesota Statutes 1967, Section 645.021.

Approved June 6, 1969.
