

convicted person to attend and satisfactorily complete a course of study at an approved driver improvement clinic. Any person who fails to comply with such an order may be adjudged in contempt of court. The requirement of attendance at a driver improvement clinic is not a fine, imprisonment, or sentence within the meaning of section 609.02. The court may not order a convicted person to attend a driver improvement clinic which is located more than 20 35 miles from the person's residence. For the purposes of this section "an approved driver improvement clinic" means a clinic whose curriculum and mode of instruction conform to standards promulgated by the commissioner of highways.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1967, Section 171.20, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Driver improvement clinics. The commissioner may require, before re-issuing a license which has been revoked or suspended, that the licensee complete a course of study at an approved driver improvement clinic. The commissioner may not require the licensee to complete such a course unless an approved driver improvement clinic is located within 20 35 miles of the licensee's residence. For purposes of this section "an approved driver improvement clinic" means a clinic whose curriculum and mode of instruction conform to standards promulgated by the commissioner.

Approved April 10, 1969.
