

shall be extended to the succeeding year unless such extension will cause more than three council members to be elected at any election, in which case the term of every such officer shall be shortened to the preceding year. Any village which has adopted a biennial election system under this act and which elects more than three council members at any such election shall by ordinance provide that one or more such officers be elected for a shorter term in order to comply with the requirement that no more than three council members be elected at each biennial election. No such ordinance need be submitted to the voters for approval. At each biennial village election, successors to incumbents whose terms will expire in the following January shall be chosen for four-year terms, except in the case of constables and justices of the peace, if any, who shall serve for two-year terms.

Approved April 29, 1969.
