

A permanent license to take fish shall be issued at the prevailing fee for an individual resident license to any citizen of Minnesota, 16 years of age or older, who is mentally retarded and whose parent or guardian furnishes satisfactory evidence of the disability to the county auditor or a sub-agent of the county auditor, acting under the provisions of section 98.50.

Sec. 2. This act is effective January 1, 1970.

Approved March 5, 1969.

CHAPTER 26—S. F. No. 171

An act relating to certain governmental bodies which may contract in certain cases with members of the body; amending Minnesota Statutes 1967, Section 471.88, Subdivision 1.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1967, Section 471.88, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

471.88 Counties; public officers; conflict of interest; exceptions. Subdivision 1. The governing body of any port authority, seaway port authority, town, school district, village, county, or city, by unanimous vote, may contract for goods or services with an interested officer of the governmental unit in any of the following cases:

Approved March 5, 1969.

CHAPTER 27—S. F. No. 288

An act relating to corporations; officers and directors of cooperative associations; amending Minnesota Statutes 1967, Section 308.11.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1967, Section 308.11, is amended to read:

Changes or additions indicated by italics, deletions by ~~strikeout~~.

308.11 Cooperative associations; officers and directors. Every cooperative association organized under sections 308.05 to 308.18 shall be governed by a board of not less than five directors, who shall be members or duly elected or appointed representatives of members of the association and who shall be elected at the annual meeting by the stockholders for such terms and in such manner as the by-laws of the association shall prescribe. The directors shall elect from their number a president and one or more vice-presidents. They shall also elect a secretary and a treasurer, who need not be directors or stockholders. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be combined and when so combined the person filling the office shall be termed secretary-treasurer. In cooperative associations wholly or partially constituted of other cooperative associations organized under the laws of this state, and if the bylaws so provide, the board of directors may also elect from their number a chairman and a vice-chairman, and in such case the president and vice-president need not be directors or stockholders. In such case they may also elect such additional officers as the articles and bylaws may authorize or require, and unless otherwise required by the articles or bylaws, said additional officers need not be directors or stockholders. The stockholders shall have the power, at any regular or special stockholders' meeting regularly called in the manner above provided, to remove any director or officer for cause and to fill the vacancy caused by such removal.

Approved March 5, 1969.

CHAPTER 28—S. F. No. 327

An act relating to wild animals; providing for permanent licenses to take fish for residents who have attained a certain age; amending Minnesota Statutes 1967, Section 98.47, Subdivision 14.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1967, Section 98.47, Subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. Game and fish; fishing licenses; older persons. A permanent license to take fish shall be issued at the prevailing fee for an individual resident license to any citizen of Minnesota who has attained the age of 70 years and furnishes satisfactory evidence of his

Changes or additions indicated by italics, deletions by ~~strikeout~~.