CHAPTER 601—S. F. No. 2136

[Not Coded]

An act exempting cities, villages, boroughs and towns in Hennepin county from payment of fees in the district court in Hennepin county, fourth judicial district; amending Laws 1967, Chapter 826, Section 1.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Laws 1967, Chapter 826, Section 1 is amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Hennepin county; clerk of court; fees; exception. Every person, including the state of Minnesota and all bodies politic and corporate, who shall transact any business in the district court, in Hennepin county, fourth judicial district, shall pay to the clerk of said court, for the use of said county, the sundry fees hereinafter prescribed; provided, however, that no county, to which this act applies, and no city, village, borough, or town located in whole or in part within the county of Hennepin, being a party to any action or proceeding in the district court established in such county, shall be required to pay fees to the clerk thereof.

vote of two-thirds of the members of its governing body, is authorized to issue and sell revenue bonds to provide funds for the construction and equipping of certain recreation facilities consisting of a municipal golf course in the vicinity of 110th Street and Xerxes Avenue South and an ice skating arena in the vicinity of Abbott Avenue South north of 98th Street and may expend funds for the operation and maintenance of such recreational facilities.

Subd. 2. Such bonds shall be secured by a pledge to the bond holders, or to a trustee, of all income and revenues of whatsoever nature derived from such facilities, as a first charge on the gross revenues thereof to the extent necessary to pay the bonds and interest thereon when due and to accumulate and maintain an additional reserve for that purpose in an amount equal to the total amount of such payments to become due in any fiscal year. In this event the governing body may by resolution or trust indenture define the land, buildings, or facilities the revenues of which are pledged, and establish covenants and agreements for the security of the bonds including a covenant that it will establish, maintain, revise, when necessary, and collect charges for all services, products, use, and occupancy of the facilities in the amounts and at the times required to produce the revenues pledged, and also sufficient, with funds that may be appropriated by the governing body from time to time, to provide adequately for the operation and maintenance of the facilities. The governing body may, by a two-thirds vote of its members, without an election by its electors, levy a tax of not more than two mills on the assessed valuation of all taxable property within its corporate limits to pay the bonds and interest thereon in the event of any deficiency in the revenues and may make a pledge or trust indenture and establish covenants to levy such tax without reduction of the amount of taxes which may otherwise be levied within statutory and charter limitations. The governing body shall provide in its budget each year for any anticipated deficiency in the revenues available of operation and maintenance and may, for this purpose, without an election by its electors, levy a tax of not more than two mills on the assessed valuation of all taxable property within its corporate limits without reduction of the amount of taxes which may otherwise be levied within statutory and charter limitations.

Sec. 2. This act takes effect when approved by two-thirds of the governing body of the city of Bloomington, and upon compliance with the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021.
