2.20 section or the rules adopted pursuant to this section; or (2) a violation of section 72A.20, 2.21 subdivision 12. The commissioner need not show a general business practice in taking an 2.22 administrative action for these violations.

2.23 ~~No individual violation constitutes an unfair, discriminatory, or unlawful practice in~~
2.24 ~~business, commerce, or trade for purposes of section 8.31.~~

2.26 Subd. 4. Standards for claim filing and handling. The following acts by an insurer,
2.27 an adjuster, a self-insured, or a self-insurance administrator constitute unfair settlement
2.28 practices:

2.29 (1) except for claims made under a health insurance policy, after receiving notification
2.30 of claim from an insured or a claimant, failing to acknowledge receipt of the notification
2.31 of the claim within ten business days, and failing to promptly provide all necessary claim

3.1 forms and instructions to process the claim, unless the claim is settled within ten business
3.2 days. The acknowledgment must include the telephone number of the company representative 3.3 who can assist the insured or the claimant in providing information and assistance that is 3.4 reasonable so that the insured or claimant can comply with the policy conditions and the 3.5 insurer's reasonable requirements. If an acknowledgment is made by means other than 3.6 writing, an appropriate notation of the acknowledgment must be made in the claim file of 3.7 the insurer and dated. An appropriate notation must include at least the following information 3.8 where the acknowledgment is by telephone or oral contact:

3.9 (i) the telephone number called, if any;

3.10 (ii) the name of the person making the telephone call or oral contact;

3.11 (iii) the name of the person who actually received the telephone call or oral contact;

3.12 (iv) the time of the telephone call or oral contact; and

3.13 (v) the date of the telephone call or oral contact;

3.14 (2) failing to reply, within ten business days of receipt, to all other communications
3.15 about a claim from an insured or a claimant that reasonably indicate a response is requested
3.16 or needed;

3.17 (3)(i) unless provided otherwise by clause (ii) or (iii), other law, or in the policy, failing 3.18 to complete its investigation and inform the insured or claimant of acceptance or denial of 3.19 a claim within 30 business days after receipt of notification of claim unless the investigation
3.20 cannot be reasonably completed within that time. In the event that the investigation cannot 3.21 reasonably be completed within that time, the insurer shall notify the insured or claimant
3.22 within the time period of the reasons why the investigation is not complete and the expected
3.23 date the investigation will be complete. For claims made under a health policy the notification
3.24 of claim must be in writing;

3.25 (ii) for claims submitted under a health policy, the insurer must comply with all of the 3.26 requirements of section 62Q.75;

3.27 (iii) for claims submitted under a health policy that are accepted, the insurer must notify 3.28 the insured or claimant no less than semiannually of the disposition of claims of the insured
3.29 or claimant. Notwithstanding the requirements of section 72A.20, subdivision 37, this 3.30 notification requirement is satisfied if the information related to the acceptance of the claim
3.31 is made accessible to the insured or claimant on a secured Web site maintained by the 3.32 insurer. For purposes of this clause, acceptance of a claim means that there is no additional 3.33 financial liability for the insured or claimant, either because there is a flat co-payment

4.1 amount specified in the health plan or because there is no co-payment, deductible, or 4.2 coinsurance owed;

4.3 (4) where evidence of suspected fraud is present, the requirement to disclose their reasons
4.4 for failure to complete the investigation within the time period set forth in clause (3) need 4.5 not be specific. The insurer must make this evidence available to the Department of 4.6 Commerce if requested;

4.7 (5) failing to notify an insured who has made a notification of claim of all available
4.8 benefits or coverages which the insured may be eligible to receive under the terms of a 4.9 policy and of the documentation which the insured must supply in order to ascertain 4.10 eligibility;

4.11 (6) unless otherwise provided by law or in the policy, requiring an insured to give written 4.12 notice of loss or proof of loss within a specified time, and thereafter seeking to relieve the 4.13 insurer of its obligations if the time limit is not complied with, unless the failure to comply 4.14 with the time limit prejudices the insurer's rights and then only if the insurer gave prior 4.15 notice to the insured of the potential prejudice;

4.16 (7) advising an insured or a claimant not to obtain the services of an attorney or an 4.17 adjuster, or representing that payment will be delayed if an attorney or an adjuster is retained 4.18 by the insured or the claimant;

4.19 (8) failing to advise in writing an insured or claimant who has filed a notification of 4.20 claim known to be unresolved, and who has not retained an attorney, of the expiration of a 4.21 statute of limitations at least 60 days prior to that expiration. For the purposes of this clause,
4.22 any claim on which the insurer has received no communication from the insured or claimant
4.23 for a period of two years preceding the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations 4.24 shall not be considered to be known to be unresolved and notice need not be sent pursuant 4.25 to this clause;

4.26 (9) demanding information which would not affect the settlement of the claim;

4.27 (10) unless expressly permitted by law or the policy, refusing to settle a claim of an 4.28 insured on the basis that the responsibility should be assumed by others;

4.29 (11) failing, within 60 business days after receipt of a properly executed proof of loss, 4.30 to advise the insured of the acceptance or denial of the claim by the insurer. No insurer shall 4.31 deny a claim on the grounds of a specific policy provision, condition, or exclusion unless 4.32 reference to the provision, condition, or exclusion is included in the denial. The denial must 4.33 be given to the insured in writing with a copy filed in the claim file;

5.1 (12) denying or reducing a claim on the basis of an application which was altered or 5.2 falsified by the agent or insurer without the knowledge of the insured;

5.3 (13) failing to notify the insured of the existence of the additional living expense coverage
5.4 when an insured under a homeowners policy sustains a loss by reason of a covered occurrence
5.5 and the damage to the dwelling is such that it is not habitable;

5.6 (14) failing to inform an insured or a claimant that the insurer will pay for an estimate
5.7 of repair if the insurer requested the estimate and the insured or claimant had previously 5.8 submitted two estimates of repair; or

5.9 (15) refusing to discuss a claim with the contractor with whom the claimant has contracted 5.10 to provide goods and services in connection with the loss.

5.11 Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 2016, section 72B.041, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

5.12 Subd. 4. Examinations. (a) An individual applying for an independent or public adjuster 5.13 license under this chapter must pass a written examination unless exempt pursuant to 5.14 subdivision 5. The examination must test the knowledge of the individual concerning the 5.15 lines of authority for which application is made, the duties and responsibilities of an 5.16 independent or public adjuster, and the insurance laws and regulations of this state.
5.17 Examinations required by this subdivision must be developed and conducted under rules 5.18 and regulations prescribed by the commissioner and, at a minimum, must include the 5.19 substantive areas included in residential contractor examination designed pursuant to section 5.20 326B.83, subdivision 3.

5.21 (b) The commissioner may make arrangements, including contracting with an outside 5.22 testing service, for administering examinations.

5.23 (c) An individual who fails to appear for the examination as scheduled or fails to pass
5.24 the examination must reapply for an examination and remit all required fees and forms 5.25 before being rescheduled for another examination.

5.26 (d) The commissioner may by rule determine the period of time between failure of an 5.27 examination and reexamination.

5.28 (e) A person shall not be eligible to take an examination if that person's license as an 5.29 independent adjuster or public adjuster has been revoked in this or any other state within 5.30 the three years next preceding the date of the application.

5.31 (f) No examination shall be required for the timely renewal of a license, unless the license
5.32 has been revoked.

6.9 insured against an insurer, the complaint must not seek a recovery under this section. After 6.10 filing the suit, a party may make a motion to amend the pleadings to claim recovery of 6.11 taxable costs under this section. The motion must allege the applicable legal basis under 6.12 this section for awarding taxable costs under this section, and must be accompanied by one
6.13 or more affidavits showing the factual basis for the motion. The motion may be opposed 6.14 by the submission of one or more affidavits showing there is no factual basis for the motion.

6.16 may grant the moving party permission to amend the pleadings to claim taxable costs under 6.17 this section.

6.18 (b) An award of taxable costs under this section shall be determined by the court in a 6.19 proceeding subsequent to any determination by a fact finder of the amount an insured is 6.20 entitled to under the insurance policy, and shall be governed by the procedures set forth in 6.21 Minnesota General Rules of Practice, Rule 119.
