03/02/21

JRM/CH

SENATE STATE OF MINNESOTA NINETY-SECOND SESSION

S.F. No. 1960

(SENATE AUTHORS: FRENTZ, Port, Fateh, Murphy and Carlson)
DATE	D-PG	OFFICIAL STATUS
03/10/2021	806	Introduction and first reading
		Referred to State Government Finance and Policy and Elections
02/03/2022	4897	Author added Carlson

1.1	A bill for an act
1.2 1.3 1.4 1.5	relating to elections; prohibiting intimidation, deceptive practices, and interference with voter registration and voting; providing penalties; amending Minnesota Statutes 2020, sections 8.31, subdivision 1; 211B.32, subdivision 1; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 211B.
1.6	BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:
1.7	Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2020, section 8.31, subdivision 1, is amended to read:
1.8	Subdivision 1. Investigate offenses against provisions of certain designated sections;
1.9	assist in enforcement. The attorney general shall investigate violations of and assist in the
1.10	enforcement of the following laws as in this section provided:
1.11	(1) the law of this state respecting unfair, discriminatory, and other unlawful practices
1.12	in business, commerce, or trade, and specifically, but not exclusively, the Nonprofit
1.13	Corporation Act (sections 317A.001 to 317A.909), the Act Against Unfair Discrimination
1.14	and Competition (sections 325D.01 to 325D.07), the Unlawful Trade Practices Act (sections
1.15	325D.09 to 325D.16), the Antitrust Act (sections 325D.49 to 325D.66), section 325F.67
1.16	and other laws against false or fraudulent advertising, the antidiscrimination acts contained
1.17	in section 325D.67, the act against monopolization of food products (section 325D.68), the
1.18	act regulating telephone advertising services (section 325E.39), the Prevention of Consumer
1.19	Fraud Act (sections 325F.68 to 325F.70), and chapter 53A regulating currency exchanges
1.20	and assist in the enforcement of those laws as in this section provided.; and
1.21	(2) section 211B.075 regulating voter intimidation, interference, and deceptive practices
1.22	in elections.

1

 be abstaining from voting, or voting for or against a candidate or ballot question; (2) an elections official with respect to the performance of duties related to elective administration; or (3) any person with respect to that person's efforts to encourage another to east a for assist another in registering to vote, traveling to a polling place, casting a ballot, or participating in any other aspect of the election process. (b) In an action brought to prevent and restrain violations of this section or to require the payment of civil penalties, the moving party may show that the action or attempt action would cause a reasonable person to feel intimidated. The moving party does not to show that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated. Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) No person, whether acting under color of law of otherwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be transmitted that the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regarted the time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restriction: voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a ballot or register or law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person in casting a ballot or register to vote. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or or set to vote. 		PRACTICES PROHIBITED; CIVIL ENFORCEMENT.
 atherwise, may not directly or indirectly use or threaten force, coercion, violence, residamage, harm, or loss, including loss of employment or economic reprisal against: (1) an individual with respect to registering or abstaining from registering to vote, vor abstaining from voting, or voting for or against a candidate or ballot question; (2) an elections official with respect to the performance of dutics related to electivalministration; or (3) any person with respect to that person's efforts to encourage another to cast a ior assist another in registering to vote, traveling to a polling place, casting a ballot, or participating in any other aspect of the election process. (b) In an action brought to prevent and restrain violations of this section or to reque the payment of civil penalties, the moving party may show that the action or attempt action would cause a reasonable person to feel intimidated. The moving party does not to show that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated. Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) No person, whether acting under color of law cotherwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be transmitted that the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information register to color of law do or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person in casting a ballot or registering under color of law to solve a singlibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a ballot or register or voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or registering to vote, or aiding another person whether acting under color or provent another person in casting a ballot or registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or r		Subdivision 1. Intimidation. (a) A person, whether acting under color of law or damage, harm, or loss, including loss of employment or economic reprisal against: (1) an individual with respect to registering or abstaining from registering to vote, vor abstaining from voting, or voting for or against a candidate or ballot question; (2) an elections official with respect to the performance of duties related to electival administration; or (3) any person with respect to that person's efforts to encourage another to cast a or assist another in registering to vote, traveling to a polling place, casting a ballot, or barticipating in any other aspect of the election process. (b) In an action brought to prevent and restrain violations of this section or to reque he payment of civil penalties, the moving party may show that the action or attempt action would cause a reasonable person to feel intimidated. The moving party does not o show that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated. Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) No person, whether acting under color of law contentwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be ransmitted that the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regare the time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restriction color of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person in casting a ballot or register or yote. 	(
 r abstaining from voting, or voting for or against a candidate or ballot question; (2) an elections official with respect to the performance of duties related to electidministration; or (3) any person with respect to that person's efforts to encourage another to cast a r assist another in registering to vote, traveling to a polling place, casting a ballot, or articipating in any other aspect of the election process. (b) In an action brought to prevent and restrain violations of this section or to reque payment of civil penalties, the moving party may show that the action or attempt ction would cause a reasonable person to feel intimidated. The moving party does not be show that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated. Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) No person, whether acting under color of law or therwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be ansmitted that the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regrese time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restriction of or eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a ballot or register of or diaw or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person in casting a ballot or register ovote.
 (2) an elections official with respect to the performance of duties related to electival administration; or (3) any person with respect to that person's efforts to encourage another to cast a or assist another in registering to vote, traveling to a polling place, casting a ballot, or participating in any other aspect of the election process. (b) In an action brought to prevent and restrain violations of this section or to require he payment of civil penalties, the moving party may show that the action or attempt action would cause a reasonable person to feel intimidated. The moving party does not so show that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated. Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) No person, whether acting under color of law or otherwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be ransmitted that the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regard he time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restriction voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a ballot or register or voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or register ovote. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation or otherwise. 		(1) an individual with respect to registering or abstaining from registering to vote, v
dministration; or (3) any person with respect to that person's efforts to encourage another to cast a or assist another in registering to vote, traveling to a polling place, casting a ballot, or participating in any other aspect of the election process. (b) In an action brought to prevent and restrain violations of this section or to reque he payment of civil penalties, the moving party may show that the action or attempt action would cause a reasonable person to feel intimidated. The moving party does not oshow that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated. Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) No person, whether acting under color of law or therwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be ransmitted that the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regate the time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restriction roter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting at Subd. 3. Interference with registration or voting. No person, whether acting under color of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person in casting a ballot or register ovote.	c	or abstaining from voting, or voting for or against a candidate or ballot question;
 (3) any person with respect to that person's efforts to encourage another to cast a or assist another in registering to vote, traveling to a polling place, casting a ballot, or participating in any other aspect of the election process. (b) In an action brought to prevent and restrain violations of this section or to reque he payment of civil penalties, the moving party may show that the action or attempt action would cause a reasonable person to feel intimidated. The moving party does not o show that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated. Subd. 2, Deceptive practices, (a) No person, whether acting under color of law or otherwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be ransmitted that the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regares the time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restriction voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a ballot or register ovote. Subd. 4, Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation or totherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation or therwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation or totherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation or therwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation or therwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation or therwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation or therwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation or to		(2) an elections official with respect to the performance of duties related to election
 (b) In an action brought to prevent and restrain violations of this section or to reque he payment of civil penalties, the moving party may show that the action or attempt action would cause a reasonable person to feel intimidated. The moving party does not one show that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated. Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) No person, whether acting under color of law or otherwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be ransmitted that the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regate time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restriction restricted with casting a ballot. 3. Interference with registration or voting. No person, whether acting under coling are ballot or register or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person in casting a ballot or register or voting. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation. 	8	idministration; or
 (b) In an action brought to prevent and restrain violations of this section or to requise payment of civil penalties, the moving party may show that the action or attempt action would cause a reasonable person to feel intimidated. The moving party does not to show that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated. Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) No person, whether acting under color of law content of the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regather time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restriction voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a bub. 3. Interference with registration or voting. No person, whether acting under color or give to vote. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation. 		(3) any person with respect to that person's efforts to encourage another to cast a l
 (b) In an action brought to prevent and restrain violations of this section or to reque payment of civil penalties, the moving party may show that the action or attempt ction would cause a reasonable person to feel intimidated. The moving party does not o show that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated. Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) No person, whether acting under color of law or therwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be ransmitted that the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regate time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restrictions to reter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a ballot or registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or register ovote. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of an or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation. 	C	or assist another in registering to vote, traveling to a polling place, casting a ballot, or the payment of civil penalties, the moving party may show that the action or attempt action would cause a reasonable person to feel intimidated. The moving party does not to show that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated. Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) No person, whether acting under color of law of otherwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be transmitted that the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regather time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restrictions voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a ballot or register of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person in casting a ballot or register to vote. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation or otherwise.	ľ	participating in any other aspect of the election process.
 action would cause a reasonable person to feel intimidated. The moving party does not o show that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated. Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) No person, whether acting under color of law of otherwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be ransmitted that the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regather time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restriction voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a beside of a subd. 3. Interference with registration or voting. No person, whether acting under color of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person in casting a ballot or register ovote. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation. 		(b) In an action brought to prevent and restrain violations of this section or to requ
 o show that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated. Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) No person, whether acting under color of law of otherwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be ransmitted that the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regarder the time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restrictione voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a best Subd. 3. Interference with registration or voting. No person, whether acting under color of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or register o vote. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the viola 	t	he payment of civil penalties, the moving party may show that the action or attempte
Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) No person, whether acting under color of law contherwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be ransmitted that the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regarder that an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a be subd. 3. Interference with registration or voting. No person, whether acting under color of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or register or vote. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color or or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation.	a	ction would cause a reasonable person to feel intimidated. The moving party does not
 otherwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be ransmitted that the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regather time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restrictions voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a ballot or registration or voting. No person, whether acting under color of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or registration or votes. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation. 	t	o show that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated.
 ransmitted that the person: (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regather time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restrictions voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a bable. Subd. 3. Interference with registration or voting. No person, whether acting uncolor of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or register to vote. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation. 		Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) No person, whether acting under color of law o
 (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; (2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regather time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restrictions voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a bable. Subd. 3. Interference with registration or voting. No person, whether acting uncolor of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or register o vote. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation. 	(otherwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be
(2) knows to be materially false. (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regardle time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restrictions voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a best Subd. 3. Interference with registration or voting. No person, whether acting uncolor of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or register vote. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation.	t	ransmitted that the person:
(b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regardle time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restrictions voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a barbon subd. 3. Interference with registration or voting. No person, whether acting uncolor of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or register over eligibility; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation of th		(1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote;
Subd. 3. Interference with registration or voting. No person, whether acting under color of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person in casting a ballot or registration or voting. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the viola		(2) knows to be materially false.
voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a basic Subd. 3. Interference with registration or voting. No person, whether acting uncolor of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or register to vote. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation.		(b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information rega
Subd. 3. Interference with registration or voting. No person, whether acting un color of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another p from voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or register to vote. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of pr otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the viola	t	he time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restrictions color of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another p from voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or register to vote. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the viola	1	voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a b from voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or registers to vote. Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of pr otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the viola		Subd. 3. Interference with registration or voting. No person, whether acting un
Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color o or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the viola	(color of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another p
Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color o or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the viola		from voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or registe
or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the viola	1	to vote.
		Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of
of this section and may be identified in an order restraining violations of this section		or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the viola

03/02/21

REVISOR

JRM/CH

21-03539

as introduced

2

03/02/21	REVISOR	JRM/CH	21-03539	as introduced
----------	---------	--------	----------	---------------

(1) intentionally aids, advises, hires, counsels, abets, incites, compels, or coerces a person to violate any provision of this section or attempts to aid, advise, hire, counsel, abet, incite,

3.3 compel, or coerce a person to violate any provision of this section; or

- 3.4 (2) conspires, combines, agrees, or arranges with another to either commit a violation
- 3.5 of this section or aid, advise, hire, counsel, abet, incite, compel, or coerce a third person to
- 3.6 violate any provision of this section.
- 3.7 Subd. 5. Enforcement. (a) The attorney general or any injured person may enforce this
 3.8 section consistent with the authority provided in section 8.31. An action filed by an injured
 3.9 person under section 8.31, subdivision 3a, is in the public interest.
- 3.10 (b) Remedies allowable under this section are cumulative and do not restrict any other
- 3.11 right or remedy otherwise available to an injured person. An action for a penalty or remedy
- 3.12 under this section must be brought within two years of the date the violation is alleged to
- 3.13 have occurred. The complaint process provided in sections 211B.31 to 211B.36 does not
- 3.14 apply to violations of this section.

3.15 Sec. 3. [211B.076] VOTER INTIMIDATION, INTERFERENCE, AND DECEPTIVE 3.16 PRACTICES PROHIBITED; CRIMINAL PENALTIES.

- 3.17 Subdivision 1. Intimidation. A person is guilty of a crime if the person, whether acting
- 3.18 under color of law or otherwise, directly or indirectly uses or threatens force, coercion,
- 3.19 violence, restraint, damage, harm, or loss, including loss of employment or economic reprisal
- 3.20 against another with the intent to:
- 3.21 (1) compel an individual to register or abstain from registering to vote, vote or abstain
- 3.22 from voting, or vote for or against a candidate or ballot question;
- 3.23 (2) influence an elections official in the performance of duties related to election
- 3.24 administration; or
- 3.25 (3) interfere with any person's efforts to encourage another to cast a ballot or assist
- 3.26 another person in registering to vote, traveling to a polling place, casting a ballot, or
- 3.27 participating in any other aspect of the election process.
- 3.28 Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) A person is guilty of a crime if the person, whether
- 3.29 acting under color of law or otherwise, within 60 days of an election causes, by any means,
- 3.30 information to be transmitted that the person:
- 3.31 (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; and
- 3.32 (2) knows to be materially false.

4.1	(b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regarding
4.2	the time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restrictions on
4.3	voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a ballot.
4.4	Subd. 3. Interference with registration or voting. A person is guilty of a crime if the
4.5	person, whether acting under color of law or otherwise, intentionally hinders, interferes
4.6	with, or prevents another person from voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person
4.7	in casting a ballot or registering to vote.
4.8	Subd. 4. Enforcement. The complaint process provided in sections 211B.31 to 211B.36
4.9	does not apply to violations of this section.
4.10	Subd. 5. Penalty. A person who violates this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.
4.11	EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2021, and applies to crimes
4.12	committed on or after that date.
4.13	Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 2020, section 211B.32, subdivision 1, is amended to read:
4.14	Subdivision 1. Administrative remedy; exhaustion. (a) Except as provided in paragraph
4.15	paragraphs (b) and (c), a complaint alleging a violation of chapter 211A or 211B must be
4.16	filed with the office. The complaint must be finally disposed of by the office before the
4.17	alleged violation may be prosecuted by a county attorney.
4.18	(b) Complaints arising under those sections and related to those individuals and
4.19	associations specified in section 10A.022, subdivision 3, must be filed with the Campaign
4.20	Finance and Public Disclosure Board.
4.21	(c) Violations of sections 211B.075 and 211B.076 may be enforced as provided in those
4.22	sections.

4