2.10 Sec. 2. [197.987] HONOR AND REMEMBER FLAG.

2.11 Subdivision 1. Legislative findings. The legislature of the state of Minnesota finds 2.12 and determines that:

2.13 (1) since the Revolutionary War, more than 1,000,000 members of the United States
 2.14 armed forces have paid the ultimate price by sacrificing their lives in active military 2.15 service for the United States of America;

2.16 (2) the contribution made by those fallen members of the armed forces is deserving 2.17 of state and national recognition; and

2.18 (3) the Honor and Remember Flag is an appropriate symbol that acknowledges the 2.19 selfless sacrifice of those members of the United States armed forces.

2.20 Subd. 2. Designation. The Honor and Remember Flag described in subdivision 2.21 3 is designated as the symbol of our state's concern and commitment to honoring and 2.22 remembering the lives of all members of the United States armed forces who have lost 2.23 their lives in the line of duty while serving honorably in active military service in the 2.24 United States armed forces or of a service-connected cause due to or aggravated by that
 2.25 service, as determined by the United States Department of Defense or the United States
 2.26 Department of Veterans Affairs. This designation is contingent on the flag being available 2.27 for purchase at a reasonable price.

2.28 Subd. 3. Description. The Honor and Remember Flag shall conform substantially
 2.29 to the following description: The Honor and Remember Flag is the same standard
 2.30 proportions as the flag of the United States of America. Its design contains a red field that 2.31 occupies the top three-quarters and a white field that occupies the bottom quarter of the 2.32 flag. In the center of the red field is a five-pointed, gold star with the top point located 2.33 near the top of the red field and the two bottom points extending about one-quarter of the 2.34 way into the white field. The gold star has a white border surrounded by a blue border.
 2.35 Between the two bottom points of the star is a tri-folded American flag displaying the blue

3.1 field and some stars, which is the configuration of the American flag presented to the 3.2 family of the deceased at a military memorial service. At the top of the tri-folded flag,
3.3 extending into the center of the gold star, is a stylized, three-part flame, with one blue part 3.4 and two red parts. In the white field below the tri-folded flag, the words "Honor and 3.5 Remember" are centered. The Honor and Remember Flag is protected by U. S. copyright, 3.6 registration number VA0001670661, owned by Honor and Remember, Inc.
