 1.8 repealed.

192.12 IN COMPUTING CONTINUOUS SERVICE.

Service by any person in the armed forces of the United States in the time of war, insurrection, or rebellion, shall be considered as continuous service in the National Guard for any and all purposes regarding privileges and exemptions provided by law for members of the National Guard by enlistment or commission. The continuous service for an officer shall include only the time the person was commissioned as an officer.

192.15 COMMISSIONS MAY BE VACATED; FEDERAL REGULATIONS.

At any time the moral character, capacity, and general fitness for the service of any National Guard officer may be determined by an efficiency board as provided by federal law. Commissions of officers of the National Guard may be vacated, upon resignation, absence without leave for three months, upon the recommendation of an efficiency board, or pursuant to sentence of a court martial.

192.16 SURPLUS OFFICERS.

Officers of the guard rendered surplus by the disbandment of their organizations shall be disposed of as provided by federal law.

192.21 DISCHARGES FOR ENLISTED MEMBERS.

An enlisted member discharged from service in the National Guard shall receive a discharge in writing in such form and with such classification as is or shall be prescribed by federal law and in time of peace discharges may be given prior to the expiration of terms of enlistment under such regulations as the federal authorities may prescribe.

192.42 ARMS AND UNIFORMS.

The National Guard shall be uniformed, armed, and equipped as provided by federal law. Such uniforms, arms, and equipment shall be procured and issued by the proper officers as the needs of the service may require and shall be accounted for as the regulations may prescribe.
