2.12.2

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 148B.593, is amended to read:

148B.593 DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION.

(a) A person licensed under sections 148B.50 to 148B.593 may not disclose without written consent of the client any communication made by the client to the licensee in the course of the practice of professional counseling, nor may any employee of the licensee reveal the information without the consent of the employer or client except as provided under section 626.556 or 626.557.

(b) For purposes of sections 148B.50 to 148B.593, the confidential relations and communications between the licensee and a client are placed upon the same basis as those that exist between a licensed psychologist and client. Nothing in sections 148B.50 to 148B.593 may be construed to require any communications to be disclosed except by court order or as provided in paragraph (c).

2.13 (c) Private information may be disclosed without the consent of the client when a duty to warn arises, or as otherwise provided by law or court order. The duty to warn of, or take 2.14 2.15 reasonable precautions to provide protection from, violent behavior arises only when a client or other person has communicated to the provider a specific, serious threat of physical 2.16 violence to self or a specific, clearly identified or identifiable potential victim. If a duty to 2.17 warn arises, the duty is discharged by the provider if reasonable efforts are made to 2.18 communicate the threat to law enforcement agencies, the potential victim, the family of the 2.19 client, or appropriate third parties who are in a position to prevent or avert the harm. No 2.20 monetary liability and no cause of action or disciplinary action by the board may arise 2.21 against a provider for disclosure of confidences to third parties, for failure to disclose 2.22 confidences to third parties, or for erroneous disclosure of confidences to third parties in a 2.23 good faith effort to warn against or take precautions against a client's violent behavior or 2.24 threat of suicide. 2.25 (d) For purposes of this section, (1) "provider" includes a licensee, an applicant for 2.26 2.27 licensure, and a student or intern practicing professional counseling or professional clinical counseling under supervision as part of an accredited graduate educational program or under 2.28

2.29 a supervised postgraduate experience in professional counseling or professional clinical

4.7 Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 148F.13, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Duty to warn; limitation on liability. (a) Private information may be disclosed 4.8 without the consent of the client when a duty to warn arises, or as otherwise provided by 4.9 law or court order. The duty to warn of, or take reasonable precautions to provide protection 4.10 from, violent behavior arises only when a client or other person has communicated to the 4.11 provider a specific, serious threat of physical violence to self or a specific, clearly identified 4.12 or identifiable potential victim. If a duty to warn arises, the duty is discharged by the provider 4.13 if reasonable efforts are made to communicate the threat to law enforcement agencies, the 4.14 potential victim, the family of the client, or appropriate third parties who are in a position 4.15 to prevent or avert the harm. No monetary liability and no cause of action or disciplinary 4.16 action by the board may arise against a provider for disclosure of confidences to third parties, 4.17 for failure to disclose confidences to third parties, or for erroneous disclosure of confidences 4.18 4.19 to third parties in a good faith effort to warn against or take precautions against a client's violent behavior or threat of suicide. 4.20

4.21 (b) For purposes of this subdivision, "provider" includes alcohol and drug counseling
4.22 practicum students and individuals who are participating in a postdegree professional practice
4.23 in alcohol and drug counseling. "Other person" and "reasonable efforts" have the meanings
4.24 given in section 148B.393, paragraph (d).
